

ENGLISH FOR WORK

EVERYDAY BUSINESS ENGLISH

Ian Badger

Contents

Introduction	page 5
1 Telephoning page 7	Dialogues 1 Beginning a call Checking the extension Asking the caller to hold Asking a caller to leave a message Making sure you understand Ending a call An automated message	Dialogues 2 A voicemail message Leaving a message You can't talk The reason for calling You can't be at the office You have to wait for a call
2 A company visit page 15	Dialogues 1 Directions to the office Setting out Arrival Meeting	Dialogues 2 Introducing a company (1) Introducing a company (2) Company history A tour of the office	Dialogues 3 Business activities (1) Business activities (2) Markets The competition
3 Job information page 25	Dialogues 1 Responsibilities Qualifications for the job A typical day Discussing a new appointment	Dialogues 2 Working conditions Financial rewards Job benefits Redundancy and retirement
4 Presentations page 33	Dialogues 1 Setting the scene Following on Dealing with questions Dealing with the unexpected Recapitulating Coming to an end	Dialogues 2 Some facts and figures Predictions Trends (upwards) Trends (downwards) Trends (mixed)
5 Meetings page 41	Dialogues 1 Setting up a meeting (by phone) Postponing a meeting (by phone) Setting up a meeting (a voicemail message) Confirming a meeting by email	Dialogues 2 Working through an agenda Reporting back to a meeting Reaching an agreement Making a point	Dialogues 3 A follow-up phone call (1) A follow-up phone call (2) Action points for a telephone call Sending minutes by email
6 Catering and socialising page 51	Dialogues 1 Coffee or tea? Introducing the menu Ordering a meal (1) Ordering a meal (2) Paying the bill	Dialogues 2 Where you live Starting a conversation Family matters Cultural advice Sensitive issues
7 Travel page 59	Dialogues 1 Checking in for a flight Hiring a car Taking the train Booking a hotel Checking into a hotel	Dialogues 2 At the check-in desk A flight delay A flight connection A hotel mix-up A payment problem
8 Faxing page 67	Messages 1 A text collect A text message Everyday matters A future meeting Declining an invitation	Messages 2 Saying thank you (1) Saying thank you (2) An invitation Accepting an invitation Pressing on good wishes	Messages 3 Problems Good news A general announcement for information
Glossary	page 79
Answers	page 85

Introduction

English for Work

The books in this series present and practise spoken English and practical writing for everyday communication. They feature key words and expressions which will help you in a wide range of work situations. The target language is introduced through short dialogues and texts, and developed in language notes and practice exercises.

The dialogues are recorded on an accompanying CD. The accents featured are predominantly British English, but comments on American usage are included in the notes.

At the back of each book there is a glossary which contains highlighted language from the dialogues. Translations of the glossary in selected languages, can be downloaded from the Longman website, www.longman-elt.com

The series is intended for pre-intermediate/intermediate level learners.

Everyday Business English

Everyday Business English is suitable for anyone who needs to work in the business world and for students in adult education classes, schools, colleges and universities.

The book contains a range of language common to all who need to use English in their business lives. Whether you use English in meetings, presentations, on the phone or in emails, you will find language to help you work more effectively in this book.

Some of the everyday business English themes included in Everyday Business English are covered in greater depth in the other titles in the series:

Business Presentations
Everyday Technical English
Everyday Business Writing

How to use the book

You can work through Everyday Business English from start to finish or choose a chapter depending on your business need.

Start a chapter by listening to and repeating the Useful phrases. Then listen to the dialogues and study the accompanying notes. Certain phrases have been highlighted that have particular language features associated with them. However, it is worthwhile noting other phrases that appear in the dialogues, which are equally important and can also be seen as key phrases. Use a dictionary to check your understanding of the language presented.

On the notes pages you will find boxes containing notes on some differences between everyday British and American usage.

After studying the dialogues and notes, work through the exercises. You can refer back to the dialogues and notes as necessary. Answers and possible responses to the more open-ended exercises are given at the end of the book.

Finally, refer to the glossary at the back of the book and test yourself on your understanding of key expressions. Write translations of these expressions, again using a dictionary if necessary. Visit the English for Work page on the Longman website where you will find translations of the key phrases in a number of languages.

You can use this book for self study or with a teacher. Good luck and enjoy building your everyday business English skills!

Ian Budge, Bristol 2003

Some recommended materials to accompany the English for Work series:

Longman Business English Dictionary

Penguin Quick Guides Business English Phrases

Penguin Quick Guides Business English Verbs

Penguin Quick Guides Business English Words

Penguin Quick Guides Computer English

1

Telephoning

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

Can I speak to Peter Sabin, please?

Speaking

Are you busy?

Can I call you back?

Please hold on

Sorry to keep you waiting

I'll transfer you

What's the area code for Dublin?

Dial 9 to get an outside line

Press the star key twice

This is a very bad line

You're breaking up

The reception is very bad

Would you like to leave a message?

Leave a message on my voicemail

I'm on meeting. I'll call you back

I think we've covered everything

Speak to you soon

Bye for now

SORRY TO KEEP YOU
WAITING SO LONG ARE YOU STILL THERE?

Dialogues 1

Beginning a call

- ❶ It's nice to speak to Max Reed, please. ?
- ❷ Just one moment. I'll connect you. You're through now.
- ❸ Max Reed speaking.
- ❹ Hi, Max. Simon here.
- ❺ Hi, Simon. How are you?
- ❻ Fine. And you?

Checking information

- ❶ Hello.
- ❷ Hello, John. Simon here. Did you get my email?
- ❸ Yes, it's right here in front of me.
- ❹ Fine. I thought it would be quicker to phone than send you another message. I wanted to run through some of the arrangements for Tuesday.

Asking the caller to hold

- ❶ Sorry to keep you waiting so long. Could you hold on a little longer? The network is very slow today.
- ❷ How long do you think it is going to take to find the information?
- ❸ It won't be long now. Right. Here we are. The figures you need are ...

Asking the caller to leave a message

- ❶ I'm trying to get hold of someone in your sales department. Are you having problems with your phone system? I was cut off earlier and now there is no reply.
- ❷ Just a moment, please. I'll try the number for you. Yes, I'm afraid there's no reply from the department. They must be at lunch. Would you like to leave a message and I'll get someone to call you when they get back?
- ❸ Thanks. My name's Rat Mechat and the number is 453880.

Making sure you understand

- ❶ Can I speak to Teresa Miller? (I understand that she is looking after Sales while Marco Stone is on parental leave.)
- ❷ That's right, but you should check back here in the moment. Can I take a message?
- ❸ Thanks. Could you say that Pieter Baumgartner called and ask her to call me back?
- ❹ Can you spell your name, please?
- ❺ Baumgartner is B-a-u-m-g-a-r-t-n-e-r. I'm at the Rainbow Hotel in room 13.
- ❻ Is that 13 one three, or 30, three zero?
- ❼ Thirteen, one three.
- ❽ Thank. I'll put on the message.

Ending a call

- ❶ OK. Have we covered everything?
- ❷ I think so. You just need to let me know when you can send the report.
- ❸ That's right. I'll send you a message when I get back to the office. (Anyway, thanks for calling.)
- ❹ No problem. I'll wait to hear from you.

Notes

I'd like to speak to Alex Reed, please

Some other phrases for checking if someone is available:

Is Alex Reed there?

Can I talk to Alex Reed?

Is Alex Reed available?

Hi, Alex. Speak here

This is an informal greeting. More formal greetings include:

Hello, Mr Reed. This is Simon Speedwell

speaking

Mr Reed. Hello. It's Simon Speedwell here

I wanted to run through ...

We often introduce the topic politely by using the past tense. We can also use I'd like to for example:

I wanted to run through the arrangements

I wanted to ask you a question

I wanted to know about your travel plans

I'd like to ask you a question

Sorry to keep you waiting ...

Some other phrases to use when someone is waiting on the phone:

Could you hold on?

Do you mind holding?

Would you like to leave a message?

Would is used to introduce a polite offer.

Note also:

Would you like me to check?

Would you like to call back later?

Would you like to hold on?

... I'll get someone to call you when they get back

Note the use of the simple present tense when they get ... in this sentence.

I'll call you if I can

I'll phone you when they arrive

I'll let you know if I hear anything

I'll let you if I remember the name

I understand that she is looking after Sales ...

Language that indicates that you already have some information:

I understand that you're coming to Melbourne next week

I hear that Pedro is moving to Singapore

I see (that) they're going to open a new office in Paris

Marco Stern is on parental leave

Some other reasons for absence include:

He's on paternity leave

She's on maternity leave

She's taking compassionate leave

Here at

She's on holiday

He's out for the day

... I'm afraid she's not here at the moment

Use I'm afraid or I'm sorry to when passing on unpleasant information.

I'm afraid I can't help you

I'm sorry I'm going to be late

I'm afraid I can't find the information you need

Have we covered everything?

Note how we signal that a call is coming to an end:

So is that everything?

Is that all?

Anyway, thanks for calling

Other ways of bringing a call to an end:

Right, I'll check the details and call you back

I think that's everything

Is there anything else?

British/American differences

Some differences between British and American English:

British

paternal leave

compassionate leave

She's on holiday

American

family leave

In American English the term compassionate leave is also used.

She's on vacation

Dialogues 2

A voicemail message

This is Ann Forsyth's voicemail: I'm sorry I can't take your call at the moment, but please leave a message and I'll get back to you. Alternatively you can leave a message with my assistant. His number is 6046, (that's the country code for Sweden), 01, (that's the area code), 2132. Many thanks.

Leaving a message

Hi, Ron. I've been trying to get hold of you all morning so I hope you get this. Please call Sara Reynolds as soon as you can. It's about the meeting next month. Unfortunately I can't make it so we need to talk urgently. It's two o'clock my time by the way and I'll be going home in three hours. Bye for now!

You can't talk

- ① Hello.
- ② Hi, John. Can you talk?
- ③ Not really. I'm in a meeting. Can I call you back in, say, fifteen minutes?
- ④ Sure. Speak to you later. It isn't urgent.

The reason for calling

- ① Can you hear me now? I couldn't hear you very well earlier. The reception was terrible. Anyway, how are you?
- ② Fine. I was just ringing to check the date for next week's meeting. Is it still three o'clock?

You can't hear the caller

- ① Hello.
- ② Hello. Sorry, I can't hear you very well. I'm in a restaurant and they have just started playing some loud music.
- ③ I didn't catch that.
- ④ I'll just go outside. Just a moment. Can you hear me now?
- ⑤ Yes, that's much better. I'm glad you're enjoying yourself!

You have to end the call

- ① John, Peter has just arrived. I'll call you when I get back to London.
- ② Fine. I'll be here until 5. Speak to you later. Bye.
- ③ Bye.

An automated message

'Welcome to Harbor Business Systems. This is a toll-free number. Please choose one of the following four options. If you are calling about an existing order, please press 1. If you wish to place a new order, press 2.'

Notes

She is Ann Forester's voicemail

Some other format opening phrases for voicemail are:

You're through to Ann Forester's voicemail

You've reached Ann's voicemail

An informal opening

Hi Ann here. Sorry I can't take your call at the moment but leave a message and I'll get back to you

It's about the meeting next month

Calls often begin with:

I'm calling/ ringing about (your flight)

John, about (your flight to Paris)

I can't make it

Make is often used instead of attend in informal usage

Unfortunately, I can't make the next evening

I can't make Friday but Thursday would be fine

Will you be able to make it?

Can you talk?

Other useful phrases for checking if the person you want to talk to is there, and some replies:

Are you busy?

Are you free to talk?

Have you got two minutes?

Can I call you back?

It's difficult at the moment

This is a good time to talk

I'm in a meeting

Some other reasons why you cannot take a call:

I'm not at my desk

I'm driving (I'll just pull over)

I'm just getting on a train

I've just arrived at the airport

I haven't got my diary with me

I was just trying to check the time

I was just ring/calling ... is a useful alternative way to mean a call

I was just calling about the meeting next Friday

I was just trying to see if everything's OK for tomorrow

I was just calling to ask for some advice

Sorry I can't hear you very well

Some other phrases to use when reception is bad

Sorry, could you repeat that?

Could you say that again?

I'm sorry I didn't catch that

I'm afraid the line's bad. Did you say there?

Could you speak louder? The line's very bad

I'll just go outside

Use well when you offer or promise to do something

I'll call you when I get back to London

I'll be here until 5

I'll call her you called

I'll make sure she gets the message

I'll get back to you as soon as I can

If you are calling about an existing order, please press 1

Some other automated instructions:

Press the star key twice

Press the hash/pound key

Press 5 to speak to the operator

Please explore the handset

British/American differences

British

American

Differences in expressing time

Monday to Friday

Monday through Friday

ten past six

ten after six

the sixth of December

December sixth

24-hour clock

12-hour clock

9:00, 12:00

9 a.m., 12 p.m.

Note! In the UK both 12-hour and 24-hour clocks are used but in the US the 24-hour clock is generally used only by the military.

Some differences in saying telephone numbers:

360 4456 = three six oh,

360-4456 = three six zero double-four five eight forty-four fifty-eight

Other differences:

Mobile phone (UK)

cellular phone directory enquiries

directory assistance

(UK)

information

dialed (UK)

dialed

Practice

- 1 Complete the sentences using the verbs from the box below. Use each verb once only.

press try call hear later keep wait say hold hang get

EXAMPLE I'm trying to get hold of Peter later.

- Would you like to _____ a message?
- I can't _____ you very well! Please speak up.
- Could you _____ on, please? I won't be long.
- Sorry to _____ you waiting.
- Can I _____ you later?
- If you _____ to place an order, _____ the star key.
- I'll _____ someone to call you later.
- He didn't _____ when he would be back at the office.
- Please don't _____ up! I'll _____ the number again.

- 2 Write what you would say in these situations. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

EXAMPLE You are the manager. The phone rings and you pick it up. The caller asks: Is that the manager? What do you say?

Yes, [Tina Forster] speaking.

- Your female colleague is off work as she has just had a baby. What do you say to the caller who wants to speak to her?
- You are in a meeting and you receive a call on your mobile phone. You cannot speak. What do you say?
- Leave a message on your colleague Peter's voicemail. Say that you called and ask him to call back when he gets the message.
- You don't catch the caller's name. Ask him to spell it.
- A colleague phones to let you know her hotel room number but you can't hear her very well. You are not sure whether it is fifteen or fifty. What do you say?

3 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

example: I'll call you in ten minutes.

- I'm trying to connect you. Could you hold _____?
- When are you going _____ holiday?
- I'm calling _____ the order I placed last week.
- Could you pass _____ a message for me?
- I'll write to you _____ two weeks' time.
- Tam is _____; paternity is not _____.

4 Choose an appropriate response.

- |                                      |   |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 1 What's the time in New York?       | a Sure, what's your number?               |
| 2 When will Eleanor be back?         | b Speaking                                |
| 3 Is that Tanya Maham?               | c Yes, of course. Let me just find a pen. |
| 4 Is Mr Rotund there?                | d Here a m.                               |
| 5 Have a good weekend.               | e Yes, it's right here.                   |
| 6 Did you get my email?              | f Yes, it's 09.                           |
| 7 Could you call me back?            | g Yes, he has just come into the office.  |
| 8 Can you take a message for me?     | h In ten days' time.                      |
| 9 Do you know the code for Helsinki? | i Thanks. You too.                        |

5 Complete the sentences with will or the present simple tense.

example: I (give) him the message when I (see) him.

I'll give him the message when I see him.

- I (call) him you called.
- If I (find) the information, I (let) you know immediately.
- If Peter (not come back) from sick leave soon, we (have) to find a replacement.
- If you (push) that button, you (disconnect) the caller.
- What (do) if you (not find) Sergei's number?
- If I (not find) his number, I (call) directory enquiries.

6 Complete the sentences with one of the alternatives.

- |   |                            |
|---|----------------------------|
| 1 Insert the hash key                        | hash/button/door           |
| 2 Replace the extension                      | extension/handset/operator |
| 3 Make a long-distance call                  | toll-free/star/tone        |
| 4 Retrieve Anna's voice mail                 | Have it/This is/Hello to   |
| 5 I couldn't reach the hand of John          | get/take/make              |
| 6 Please don't hang up                       | hang/hold/take             |
| 7 Don't forget to turn off your mobile phone | turn off/close/drop        |
| 8 Did you dial the access code first?        | are/secret/town            |

7 Put the dialogue in the right order.

- Speaking
- Hi Tarmo
- Thanks, Tarmo
- I'll do it now
- Of course.
- Did you get my message?
- You'd like me to send directions to the office
- Can I speak to Tarmo Star please?
- Yes that's right
- Could you send them today?
- Yes I did...
- See you soon

h<sub>2</sub> a<sub>1</sub>

8 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- |                                  |                                   |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 Press the star key             | a on hold for a minute            |
| 2 Could you leave a message      | b a conference call for next week |
| 3 I'll call you                  | c take the call at the moment     |
| 4 Please wait. I'll just put you | d the wrong number                |
| 5 I'm sorry, I must have dialled | e to return to the main menu      |
| 6 We need to set up              | f with directory enquiries        |
| 7 I need to check the number     | g for me on my vacation?          |
| 8 I'm sorry but I can't          | h when I get back to my office    |

2

A company visit

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

Could you give me directions to your office?

Just follow the signs.

Go past the station and take the first turning on the left.

You'll see the office on the right-hand side.

I've left my car in a reserved space.

I have an appointment with Hans Olsson.

Take the lift to the fourth floor.

His office is the fifth on the right, along the corridor.

Hello Hans, I'd like you to meet our Marketing Manager.

Pleased to meet you.

Tell me something about the company.

What does the company do?

We're in the transport business.

We employ just under 5 000 people worldwide.

The company was set up five years ago.

We're the largest manufacturer in the country.

North America is our biggest market in terms of sales by region.

We have an excellent reputation for service.

Business is booming.

I'VE
LEFT MY CAR IN A RESERVED SPACE.

Dialogues 1

Directions to the office

- ① Hi, Ross. It's June here. I'm in the town centre outside the bus station. Could you tell me how to get to your office from here?
- ② Sure. Follow the signs for Frankfurt. After about two kilometres, you'll see a garage on your right. Carry on for another 200 metres and then turn left. Our office is on the left-hand side, just before a railway bridge. When you arrive, park in one of the visitors' spaces just outside the main building.
- ③ Thanks. Ross. See you soon.

Getting lost

- ① Hi Carla.
- ② Hello, Bob. Is everything all right?
- ③ Not really. I'm lost. I'm coming from a service station on the E7 just south of a place called Malton. I don't have a map with me, so could you direct me to the factory?
- ④ Sure. Take the first left after the service station and follow the road to Parlock. Pass the shopping centre on your right and then take the first left. Carry on for three kilometres and you'll see the factory.
- ⑤ Thanks.

Arrival

- ① Good morning, can I help you?
- ② Yes, I have an appointment with Miss Ekberg. Could you tell her I'm here? I've left my car in a reserved space.
- ③ That's OK. I'll take the car registration number. Could you write your name here please and wear this? (hands over a visitor's badge) (Do you know the building?)
- ④ I'm afraid I don't.
- ⑤ OK, go up these stairs and take the lift to the third floor. Mr Ekberg's office is the fifth one, the right, along the corridor.
- ⑥ Thanks.

Meeting

- ① Hello, John. Good to see you again.
- ② And you.
- ③ John, I'd like you to meet Lena Svensen, our Marketing Manager.
- ④ Hello, John. Pleased to meet you. (Did you have a good journey?)
- ⑤ Yes, very good. The directions were very clear.

Notes

Could you tell me how to get to the office from here?

We also say:

Can you tell me the way to ...?

How do I get to ...?

Excuse me, where is the main office?

After about two kilometres you'll see a garage on your right

Some other landmarks:

You'll pass some shops.

Then you'll see a large red building in front of you.

Keep going and you'll come to the entrance gate.

Park in one of the visitors' spaces...

Parking the car

I've left my car in a restricted space.

There are some spaces reserved for visitors.

Can I park here?

Is this space reserved?

I'm calling from a service station

When you need to say where you are:

I'm calling from the train

I'm on the M1 motorway

I'm calling from a service station on the M4

Take the first left after the service station

Some useful directions when you are driving:

Go on for three kilometres

Take the second exit at the roundabout

Turn left at the junction

Go straight across the roundabout

At the traffic lights, turn right

Go on for three kilometres

Other expressions for talking about distance:

Go on for another ten kilometres and you come to a service station

It's half hundred metres past the service station on the right-hand side

I have an appointment with Miss Ekberg

Repeat the statements and responses:

I'd like to see Miss Ekberg

Can I have your name, please?

Could you sign in, please?

Is Miss Ekberg available?

Yes, he's expecting you.

Do you know the building?

Checking if a visitor knows the/their way around a building

Have you been here before?

Where were you last time?

I haven't been here before

Mr Ekberg's office is on the left on the right, along the corridor

Some other office locations:

It's opposite the lift

It's just past the coffee machine

Go through the automatic doors

Hello, John. Good to see you again

An informal greeting. Other possibilities:

Hi, John. How are you?

How's life?

How's it going?

Possible responses:

Fine, thanks.

I'm very well

I'd like you to meet Lena Berman...

Some language of introductions

I'd like to introduce Lena Berman

Have you already met?

No, we met last year

Did you have a good journey?

We can also say:

How was the journey?

How was the flight/traffic?

British/American differences

British

service station shopping centre

car registration number lift shops

motorway

roundabout

crossroads

traffic lights

American

gas or filling station

(shopping) mall

license plate number elevator stores

freeway/expressway interstate traffic circle intersection

stop lights

Dialogues 2

Introducing a company (1)

- ① We're in the label business. We produce all kinds of labels – price labels, bottle labels, even postage stamps. We have factories in France, Germany, Malaysia, China and the UK.
- ② How many people work for the company?
- ③ We employ just over 5 000 people worldwide. There are around 400 employees in this factory.
- ④ Is business going well?
- ⑤ Yes it is, and it's growing all the time.

Introducing a company (2)

- ① So, tell me more about your mailing business.
- ② Sure. We provide a complete packaging and mailing service for our customers. We now have branches all over the south of the country and we have plans to open new branches in the north.
- ③ What kind of company are you?
- ④ We're a private limited company. We're not listed on the Stock Exchange ... yet.

Company history

- ① So, how long have you been on this site?
- ② We moved here five years ago. Before that, we were in a very small office building in the centre of town.
- ③ And when was the company set up?
- ④ Ten years ago – by Simon Gossie who is still the Managing Director. He started the company with just two employees.
- ⑤ That's very impressive.

A tour of the office

- ① Let me show you round the office. Our sales representatives work in this open plan area. The room in the corner is Brit Gossie's office. She's the Senior Sales Manager here. Do you know her?
- ② No, I don't. Has she been here long?
- ③ No, she joined the company two months ago. Come with me, I'll introduce you to her.
- ④ Hello, Brit. I'd like you to meet Olivier Blumstein from the Paris office.
- ⑤ Pleased to meet you (Olivier). How are things in Paris?

Notes

We're in the lethal business

Some other businesses
the passport business/the paper business the IT industry/the steel industry the retail trade/the fashion trade

We employ just over 5,000 people worldwide

Other ways to talk about employee numbers:
We have just under 5,000 employees
We have 5,000 people working for us
5,000 people work for us

...it's growing all the time

Describing how a business is going:
The company is doing well/better
Things are going well/better
Profits are up/down

Let me spill about your marketing business

Other useful opening remarks:
What does the company do?
What business are you in?
I hear you work for a trading business

We're a private limited company

Compare with a public limited company (plc)
The public can buy shares in a public limited company but not in a private limited company

Some other types of business:
a sole trader/before she parted with the business a partnership/a business owned by two or more people a family business

the Stock Exchange

The market where stocks and shares are bought and sold

How long have you been on this site?

We can also talk about premises (land and buildings) and location (place)
Our current premises are very convenient
I preferred our previous location in the centre of town

When was the company set up?

Other ways to talk about the start of a company:

When was it established?

When was it founded?

It was founded by General Kibaki in 1997

Let me show you around the office

Language for 'guiding' people round the office:

Come with me

Come this way

Over there you can see the Managing office

That is where we handle orders

...open plan area

An office area where staff members work in one large, often partitioned, space – not in separate offices. Also known as an open plan office

I'll introduce you to her

We can also say:

I'd like to introduce you to Ben Gamlin

You must meet Ben Gamlin

Let me introduce you

British/American differences

British

private limited

company

limited liability

the retail trade

public limited

company (plc)

a sole trader

American

company or corporation

incorporated firm / retail business

a publicly-traded

company

a sole proprietor

Dialogues 3

Business activities (1)

- Q We're the second largest manufacturer in the country of glass for the car industry. One in three cars in this country uses our glass.
- Q How many plants do you have?
- Q We have five domestic plants, but we also have factories in two other countries.
As well as supplying the car industry, we sell glass for buses, trains, ships and aircraft.

Business activities (2)

- Q Tell me more about the company.
- Q Basically we run a so-called 'shopping search' website. If you visit our site, you can find links to a wide range of products and services. You can compare prices from various shops and find the best deal.
- Q That sounds very interesting, but is it secure?
- Q Yes, in my view it's far more secure than buying over the phone.

Markets

- Q Where are your biggest markets?
- Q In terms of sales by region, Europe is by far the biggest market with 60 per cent of our total sales. North America accounts for 15 per cent, Asia-Pacific is 10 per cent – the Chinese market is particularly strong, South America is 1 per cent and the rest of the world is 7 per cent.
- Q I think you'd better write that down for me! Why are things going so well in China?
- Q The Chinese economy is booming and we have a very good sales force there.

The competition

- Q Who are your main competitors?
- Q It depends on the region. There are a lot of local producers in Europe and we cannot compete with them on price. However, our reputation for service is excellent. We are well known in the market for high quality and reliability.
- Q What about the Japanese market?
- Q We cannot compete in Japan. High transport costs make it very unprofitable to do business. Maybe things will change in the future.

Notes

We're the second largest manufacturer in the country ...

Talking about the size of the company
We're by far the largest producers of
We're the third biggest in the country
We're among the largest/smallest in the region

As well as supplying the car industry, we sell ...

Use as well as for emphasis: 'We can also say
In addition to supplying the car industry, we supply many other customers

... we run a so-called 'shopping search' website.

The speaker could also say
It's what we call a 'shopping search' website
These phrases show that the words shopping search are known to people 'in the business' but not to others

You can compare prices from various shops ...

We can also say
You can make comparisons between shops
You can compare A with B

In any case, it's far more secure ...

If you are not so sure of your facts, you might say
As far as I know, it's more secure

In terms of sales by region, ...

in terms (of) is a useful phrase
What does chairman in terms of employment?
In terms of probability, it means that
Can you give us the figures in percentage terms?

North America accounts for 15 per cent ...

This means that sales to North America represent/are fifteen per cent of sales
Note that we say 'fifteen per cent'
(NOT pro cent)

The Chinese economy is booming ...

Some verbs to describe the state of a market
Demand is strong
Demand is very weak
There is a steadily demand in Australia
The market for our products is growing/falling

... we cannot compete with them on price ...

Ways of talking about competition
But we can compete with them in terms of technological delivery
Our prices are very competitive
We're become very uncompetitive in that market

We are well known in the market ...

Ways of describing reputation
We have a good reputation
We have an excellent name
Everyone knows us
We are well established in the market

... transport costs make it very unprofitable ...

Talking about profit and loss
It's a very profitable business
We're not making much profit
We're making a loss
We're finally making a profit

British/American differences

British

transport costs
We're making a loss

American

transportation costs
We're operating at a loss/We're taking a loss

Practice

1 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

- example: You need to take the lift to the third floor.
- Take the third turning on the left.
  - Park in one of the visitors' spaces.
  - We are in for the largest manufacturer.
  - One of three of our plants is making a loss.
  - There is no profit in it.
  - Tell me about your sales in region.
  - We are very competitive in terms of price.
  - Are you listed on the Stock Exchange?
  - What kind of business are you in?

2 Complete the sentences using the words in the box below.

Use each word once only.

reputation	demand	corridor	profit	site
partnership	registration	aspir	lift

- example: Could you give me directions? I don't have a map.
- Do you need my car number?
  - How long have you had offices on this site?
  - You can use the stairs, but it's quicker to take the lift.
  - My office is along the corridor on the right.
  - After two years of making losses, we are now making a profit.
  - There is a growing demand for our products in the Middle East.
  - My brother and I went into partnership three years ago.
  - We have an excellent reputation for quality.

3 Choose an appropriate response.

- |  |                                 |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1 Did you have a good journey?             | a No, it's a partnership.       |
| 2 Is it a limited company?                 | b Just over five years ago.     |
| 3 When was the company set up?             | c Yes, that's right.            |
| 4 Have you been on that site long?         | d Thanks, I can manage.         |
| 5 I hear you're in the transport business? | e Yes, very good thanks.        |
| 6 What kind of company is it?              | f Yes, we met last year.        |
| 7 Can I help?                              | g It's a small family business. |
| 8 Do you know Sumita?                      | h Yes, for twenty years.        |

4 Write what you would say.

a Direct someone to the factory

1. I live near a big park. I go to school every day.
2. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
3. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
4. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
5. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.

b Direct someone to your office.

1. I live near a big park. I go to school every day.
2. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
3. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
4. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
5. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.

3rd floor

c Explain where you parked your car.

1. I live near a big park. I go to school every day.
2. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
3. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
4. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
5. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.

d Explain where you are

1. I live near a big park. I go to school every day.
2. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
3. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
4. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.
5. I go to school every day. I go to school every day.

5 Write down a question for the following answers. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

Answer: What kind of business are you in?

We're in the shipping business.

- a How many _____?
We employ just over 200 people.
- b Are _____?
No, we're not a partnership – we're a limited company.
- c How long _____?
We have been on this site for three years.
- d Do _____?
Yes, I do. The working atmosphere is very good now.
- e Where _____?
In terms of region, the biggest market is North America.
- f Who _____?
I suppose our biggest competitors are companies in Thailand and Indonesia.
- g Can you tell me _____?
Follow the road to Trieste and you'll see the factory on the right.

6 Rewrite the following in another way. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

Answer: I have an appointment with Jan Pickard.

I've have to see Jan Pickard.

- a I've parked in a reserved space.
- b Could you tell me the way to the main office?
- c I'd like to you to meet our marketing manager.
- d How was the journey?
- e When was the company established?
- f We are one of the largest manufacturers in the region.
- g We have an excellent name in the market.

3

Job information

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

I work for a software company.

I'm responsible for the development of new products.

It's a very challenging job.

I report directly to the Managing Director.

The job involves a lot of travelling.

I usually start work at 8 o'clock in the morning.

Do you usually drive to work?

How's the new job?

I really enjoy it.

The salary is good.

I'm very pleased I moved here.

How has the takeover affected you?

Some people are going to lose their jobs.

Some will take early retirement.

There won't be any compulsory redundancies.

We need to recruit a new training manager.

What kind of people are you looking for?

We need someone with excellent communication skills.

I REALLY ENJOY THIS JOB.
IT'S A GREAT COMPANY TO WORK FOR.

Dialogues 1

Responsibilities

- Q So what exactly do you do in the company?
- A I'm responsible for new product development. I report directly to the CEO.
- Q What does that involve?
- A I supervise a team of designers. We all have to think of new ideas, test them and develop the ones that we think will succeed.
- Q It sounds challenging.
- A It is, but I really enjoy it.

Qualifications for the job

- Q I hear you studied in Finland.
- A That's right. I did a degree in Engineering at Tampere Technical University and then I worked in a small software company in Helsinki.
- Q Why did you decide to stay in Finland?
- A I was very interested in the job. I wanted to put my training into practice. The experience was very good and certainly helped me to get this job.

A typical day

- Q What time do you start in the mornings?
- A I aim to get to work by 8 a.m. That means leaving home at 7.30. I usually cycle to work.
- Q Are the hours flexible?
- A In theory yes, but I normally finish at 4 p.m. I sometimes finish earlier if I take a very short lunch break.
- Q Do you go out for lunch?
- A Occasionally, but I like eating in the company canteen!

Discussing a new appointment

- Q What kind of person are we looking for?
- A We want someone who is already working as a Project Manager in a software house. He or she should have at least three years' experience.
- Q What sorts of skills are needed?
- A Excellent communication skills are essential. The person we appoint will have a lot of direct contact with clients – we need someone who can present the company clearly.
- Q Absolutely. So where can we find this person?
- A I think we should advertise with an on-line recruitment agency but we may have to use a firm of head-hunters.

Notes

I'm responsible for new product development

We can also say:
I'm in charge of new product development
New product development is my responsibility

I report directly to the CEO

That means the CEO is my boss
CEO = Chief Executive Officer
CFO = Chief Financial Officer
MD = Managing Director

What does that involve?

Notice that we use the infinitive form of the verb after involve:
It involves attending a lot of meetings
It involves working long hours

It sounds challenging

challenging means demanding, tough
The job is a challenge
I enjoy challenges

I know you studied in Finland

Note how know, understand, and believe are used in conversational English:
I understand you spent some time in Japan
I believe you know Don quite well

Possible responses:
That's right/Not really
Yes, I was there for two years
Yes, we're very good friends

I did a degree in Engineering

Other language for describing studies:
I did a B.A. (Bachelor of Arts)
I studied for my MSc (Master of Science)
I completed my studies last year
I graduated from Oxford University in 1999

I was very interested in the job

Note the prepositions:
to be interested in, keen on, fascinated by

I usually cycle to work

Other ways of getting to work – note the correct prepositions:
I walk/go on foot
I drive/go by car
I take the train/go by train

Are the hours flexible?

Prepared to talk about flexible working
I work flexible hours
We have a 'flextime' system

I like eating in the company canteen

Another person may prefer to have a table away or to eat at a local restaurant at the firm's desk or a sandwich bar from a market stall

Excellent communication skills are essential

Setting key qualifications for a job
We need someone who is very reliable
We're looking for someone with strong leadership skills
We want someone with a good 'track record'

Absolutely

In speech, Absolutely means 'I agree/You're right'

... we should advertise with an on-line recruitment agency

We can find staff in a recruitment or employment agency
How do you recruit staff?
Do you advertise in the local/foreign newspaper?

British/American differences

British	American
freeway	freeway
freeway	freeway
Motor	motor
Note: To for is only used in British English. It is not used at all in American English.

Dialogues 2

Working conditions

- ① Are you pleased you moved to the Bangkok office?
- ② Yes I am. The atmosphere is very relaxed and I have a good group of colleagues. There's a great mix of nationalities and we often go out for dinner or for a drink after work. Everyone is on first name terms.
- ③ Don't you find it very hot there?
- ④ Bangkok is hot, yes, but the offices are very comfortable. All the buildings and cars are air-conditioned. I have no regrets about moving.

Financial rewards

- ① What kind of salary do you think we should offer for the new sales manager's job in Almaty?
- ② It's difficult to say. We would normally pay $24 000 a year plus commission for a job with those responsibilities, but I don't know about the cost of living in Kazakhstan and I have no idea about the level of local salaries.
- ③ Neither have I. I'll talk to Balgere Kasakov about it. She's originally from Almaty – I think she's working in our Dacca office at the moment.

Job benefits

- ① How's the new job?
- ② I'm very happy with it. The salary is reasonable – not quite as good as in the last job, but the company really looks after its people.
- ③ How do you mean?
- ④ Well, there's free use of the company gym and health club, they pay for all my phone calls and I get excellent medical insurance. Sickness pay and holidays are very good and the promotion prospects are excellent.
- ⑤ You're lucky.
- ⑥ Yes, I am – they even gave us a season ticket for the local football team!

Retirement and redundancy

- ① How has the takeover affected the company?
- ② Well, the new owners are going to close down a plant in Mende and another in Dubai. About 300 people are going to lose their jobs.
- ③ That's terrible.
- ④ Actually it's not quite as bad as it sounds. Most of the staff will be offered jobs in other plants and quite a few want to take early retirement.
- ⑤ So there are no compulsory redundancies?
- ⑥ Very few.
- ⑦ That's good news.

Notes

The atmosphere is very relaxed

The working atmosphere can be formal or informal – it can also be strangely relaxed

Everyone is on first name terms

In an informal environment staff are probably on first name terms – they use first names rather than surnames

Don't you find it very hot there?

Note that the use of Don't at the beginning of this question expects the answer 'No'. If the answer is 'No' the speaker must emphasize the answer: e.g. Not really. No, not at all

I have no regrets about moving

Expressing feelings
I don't regret moving here at all
I'm happy to be here
I'm very pleased I moved

£50,000 a year plus commission

Commission is the payment made to sales people depending on how much they sell.

the cost of living

The cost of living is the expense of living in a country
The standard of living is how well you can live in a country

the level of local salaries

Salaries are normally paid monthly
Wages are normally paid weekly

Neither here!

Note the word order after Neither:
I didn't go to university – Neither did I
I'm not going to move – Neither am I so follows the same rule
I studied in Moscow – So did I

I'm moving to Tottenham – So are I
I have working hours – So do I

... the company really looks after its people

Phrases for describing your employer
It's a great/fantastic company to work for
I have a very good/in vital role

... I have free use of the company gym

Some other benefits let you are: today's
They pay for all my phone calls
I get excellent medical insurance
I have a good daily allowance

... promotion prospects are excellent

The speaker has a very good chance of getting a better paid job with more responsibility in the company

How has the takeover affected the company?

Note the use of the verb to affect
How has the takeover affected you? Concern
What has been the effect of the takeover on the company?

About 200 people are going to lose their jobs

This is more neutral than:
They are going to fire about fifty people or
Fifty people are going to be fire dismissed

... quite a few want to take early retirement

Note that we take early retirement. Other expressions
I'd like to retire early
I'm not looking forward to retirement

... there are no compulsory redundancies

Note how we talk about redundancy
What happens in order redundancy?
I was made redundant last year
Most of the redundancies will be voluntary

British/American differences

British

laid off term

compulsory redundancies

to be made redundant to be laid off

I didn't go to university

I have a good daily allowance

To sack

Note: To fire is less formal than to dismiss in both British and American English

American

laid off term mandatory

layoffs

to be laid off

I didn't go to college

I have a good pay check

To fire/dismiss (also used in British English)

Practice

- 1 Complete the missing word in the sentences and then put them in the grid. The letters in the tinted panel will spell a key word.

- You don't need to pay. Use of the gym is FREE.
- Is the cost of TRAVEL high in Norway?
- We need a person with GOOD communication skills.
- There is a good MIX of nationalities in the office.
- Are you planning to take early PEN?
- I understand some STAFF will be lost after the takeover.
- Do you know the RATE of local salaries?
- My employer provides free TRAVEL insurance.

- 2 Complete the sentences with a form of the word in brackets.

- Example: John is now head of recruitment (recruit)
- Because of the factory closure, 500 people are going to be made redundant (redundancy)
  - I'm in charge of developing (develop)
  - The company provide free motor insurance (insure)
  - I'm planning to retire next year (retirement)
  - It is a very static place to work (static)
  - Do you know who the new owners of the company are? (own)
  - We need a manager with excellent leadership skills (lead)
  - I have good growth prospects in my new job (grow)
  - It's a very challenging job (challenge)
  - It's a job with a wide range of responsibilities (responsible)

3 Match the statements and questions with the responses.

- |  |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 1 I understand Frank used to work in Japan | a Fine, thanks                        |
| 2 How are you?                             | b Yes, the directions were very clear |
| 3 I usually walk to work                   | c At 4 p.m.                           |
| 4 Did you have a good journey?             | d Yes, I am                           |
| 5 I don't have any regrets about moving    | e That's right, it was five years ago |
| 6 Is it a good place to work?              | f Mother do I                         |
| 7 Are you looking forward to retirement?   | g It can be                           |
| 8 When did you graduate?                   | h Absolutely!                         |
| 9 What time do you leave work?             | i So do I                             |
| 10 We need someone who is very reliable    | j In 2001                             |

4 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

- Example: I'm in charge of IT Services
- I'm responsible for recruitment.
  - I report to the Human Resources Director
  - I take care of everyday office procedures
  - I studied for my degree at Edinburgh University
  - I have no regrets about taking my current job
  - Isn't the cost of living very high?
  - I have free use of the company swimming pool

5 Complete the crossword.

Across

- I work for a recruitment agency
- I don't have time to eat in a restaurant at lunchtime
I usually have a quick bite
- The meals in the staff canteen are excellent
- I used to be paid weekly, now I'm paid monthly
- I can't afford to live here. The cost of living is too high

Down

- She's an Oxford University graduate
- The company provides a very good daily allowance for living expenses
- The company has changed enormously since the takeover
- I'm moving to Istanbul next year!
Really? When? am I?

6 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- |                                       |   |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| 1 I graduated                         | a for a degree in Business Administration |
| 2 I report                            | b by car                                  |
| 3 I studied                           | c plus commission                         |
| 4 I go to work                        | d to early retirement.                    |
| 5 We need to advertise                | e in the local newspaper.                 |
| 6 He offered her a salary of $80 000 | f to the Chief Project Manager            |
| 7 The company looks                   | g after its staff well                    |
| 8 I'm looking forward                 | h from university five years ago          |

7 Respond to the statements with so or neither.

Example I'm going to lose my job.

So am I.

a I didn't want to take early retirement.

Neither did I.

b I want to University in France.

So I do.

c I'm not going out this evening.

Neither am I.

d I usually start at 8:30 a.m. in the morning.

So do I.

e I don't like eating in the company canteen.

Neither do I.

f I wasn't interested in my previous job.

So I wasn't.

g I was very happy in Thailand.

So was I.

h I'm in the paper industry.

So am I.

4

Presentations

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

I'm glad to see so many of you here today.

I'd like to talk about how we organise things in this department.

First I'll describe our organisation.

Finally, I'd like to discuss some future plans.

That's all I wanted to say about training.

Moving on to my next point...

Excuse me, can you tell us when the report will be ready?

Sorry, I didn't catch the question.

Could you bear with me?

Turnover rose by 12 per cent last year.

We are predicting a slowdown next year.

As you can see from the graph, sales have increased dramatically.

Sales reached a peak in December.

They have declined since then.

These are difficult times for the company.

I'd like to finish by thanking you all.

I'd welcome your feedback.

I'M GLAD TO SEE SO MANY OF YOU
HERE TODAY.

Dialogues 1

Setting the scene

- Ⓐ Hello everyone. It's good to see you all here so early in the morning. My name's Helen Rossi and I'd like to talk about how we organise language training here. First of all, describe how English has become the company language then I'll outline our study programmes. Finally I'd like to say something about some of our plans for the future.

Moving on

- Ⓑ ... So that's all I wanted to say about the budget for next year. I'd now like to move on to the question Ross raised earlier.
... That leads me to my next point. We need to look carefully at how we plan for next year.
... So, next year's budget, I'd now like to talk about the action we are taking to reach our targets.

Dealing with questions

- Ⓐ How much is the project going to cost?
- Ⓑ I'm afraid I can't say at the moment.
- Ⓐ Can you tell us when the report will be ready?
- Ⓑ I'm hoping to have it ready by the end of the week.
- Ⓐ Are you planning to recruit more staff?
- Ⓑ Sorry, I didn't catch the question. Could you repeat it, please?
- Ⓐ Sorry, I'd like to know if you are planning to recruit more staff.
- Ⓑ Did everyone hear that? The question was: Are we planning to recruit more staff?

Dealing with the unexpected

- Ⓐ Oh dear.
- Ⓑ Is it broken?
- Ⓐ Yes, the bulb is broken. I'm afraid I won't be able to use the projector. Could you bear with me, I have some paper copies in my briefcase.
- Ⓐ Are you OK?
- Ⓑ Yes, I think so. Could I have a glass of water? That's better. Sorry, where was I?
- Ⓐ You were just about to tell us some interesting news.

Recapping

- Ⓐ As I mentioned earlier, we hope to finish the project by the end of the year. I said that we were on schedule. Having said that, there are a couple of potential problems.

Coming to an end

- Ⓐ I'd like to finish by thanking you all for coming here today and I look forward to seeing you in two weeks' time. If anyone has any questions, please ask. I will be around for coffee later and you are very welcome to contact me if you have any queries before the next meeting.

Notes

See the companion book in this series, Business Presentations, for more help with giving presentations in English.

It's good to see you all here ...

Speaker's opening remarks to an audience
I'm very pleased to be here.
I'm glad you could all make it.
Thanks for inviting me.
Thank you (all) for coming.

... I'd like to talk about ...

Other common phrases for starting off a presentation
I'm planning to tell you about ...
Today I'd like to introduce ...
I'd like to start by saying something about ...

Now I'll describe ...

Phrases for describing the structure of a talk.
Then I'll discuss our study programme.
After that I'll come to the main point.
Finally I'd like to say something about ...

... that's all I wanted to say ...

Notes how the speaker finishes off a section of the talk. Some other phrases:
Are there any questions so far?
Moving on to my next point ...
To summarise what I have said so far ...

That leads me to my next point.

Announcing a new point in a presentation.
I'd now like to move on from the question
Moving on to the next question ...
Now I'd like to tell about ...

So, next year's budget

You tell something simply announce a new topic/presentation slide as follows:
So, let's in Canada. There have been development plans for next year. These are Study programmes. Have a look at

I'm afraid I can't say ...

Useful language for when you do not know the answer to a question.
I'm sorry I don't know the answer.
I'll have to check for you.
I'm not the best person to answer that.
You need to speak to

I didn't catch the question

When you can't hear something.
Could you repeat the question?
Could you say that again?
Sorry, what did you say?

Could you bear with me ...

A very useful phrase when you need time to check or find something. Alternatives:
Excuse me for a moment.
Just a moment.
Can you give me two minutes?

Sorry, what was it?

If you are distracted or forget what you wanted to say! Other possibilities:
Can your/yourself help me?
Let me think.

You were just about to tell us ...

Helping the speaker to remember the point
he/she wanted to make!
You were talking about the schedule.

As I mentioned earlier ...

Useful language for repeating (summarising/reviewing) what was said earlier in the presentation.
As I pointed out/mentioned earlier ...
As I said before ...

I'd like to finish by thanking you all ...

Language for ending a talk.
Thank you.
Thank you for inviting me.
Are there any questions?

... you are very welcome to contact me ...

Asking the audience to contact you.
I'd be very happy to hear from you.
I'd welcome your feedback.

British/American differences

British

organise/organisation study programmes schedule

July/A, July/A

American

organize/organization study programs
schedule

July/A, July/A

● Dialogues 2

Some facts and figures

- ① (Turnover rose in the year to April by 15 per cent to 4 billion dollars compared with 3.4 billion in the previous year. Profits jumped by 25 per cent in this period. However, these results give a misleading picture as the company sold its French subsidiary during the period for a one-off profit of half a billion dollars)

Predictions

- ② (We're currently predicting a slow down in sales for next year. Global trading conditions are not promising. However, one area where we expect growth to continue is in Japan and Korea, where analysts are forecasting an upturn in the market)
- ③ Is that for the whole of the region?
- ④ Yes, you're looking at a growth rate of between 1 and 3 per cent in these areas

Trends: upwards

- ⑤ (As you can see from the graph, sales have increased considerably this year. The beginning of the year was poor, but sales picked up in February and reached a peak in August. Since then they have fallen a little but the overall trend is upwards. The outlook is very healthy)

Trends: downwards

- ⑥ The chart clearly shows the decrease fall in production since the beginning of the year, and unfortunately this is a trend which will continue. (The closure of our Luben plant in January accounts for the sharp fall at that time and as sales have continued to decline, we have had to temporarily shut down a number of our factories. These are difficult times for the company)

Trends: steady

- ⑦ If you compare this six-month period with the previous six months, you will notice that there has been very little change in the number of guests visiting our hotel. In fact, guest numbers have not increased for three years. We need to think a bit what we can do to make our hotel more popular)

Notes

Turnover rose in the year to April ...

Other ways of describing financial periods of time in the first/second/third quarter in the year-to-date in the current year

... by 10 per cent ...

Note the use of the preposition by with percentages and fractions by what percentage did turnover grow?
it grew by 5.8% (five point one per cent)
by 3.75% (by three point seven five per cent)
it went up 20% (two and a half per cent)

... these results give a misleading picture ...

When information from charts and statistics is not so useful:
The graph gives a false picture
The statistics may give you the wrong idea

... a 'one-off' profit

A profit which will not be repeated

We're currently predicting a slow down ...

Other ways to predict events
We're forecasting an improvement
We're expecting a sharp fall

... analysts are forecasting an upturn ...

An upturn is a recovery
A downturn is a decline

... we're looking at a growth rate of between 1 and 3 per cent ...

To look at is an informal alternative expression meaning to expect or to predict
We're looking at a large increase
What kind of growth are we looking at next year?

As you can see from the graph ...

Referring to visual aids
The chart clearly shows the dramatic fall in production
At this point on the graph you can see Here you can see ...

... sales have increased considerably ...

Alternatives to considerably
a lot a great deal, substantially

... sales picked up in February ...

Other verbs to describe trends
Sales recovered (returned to their original level)
Turnover fell back (decreased)
Sales went up/down on last year (better/worse than last year)

... sales reached a peak in August

We can also say
Sales reached their high/ highest point in August
The opposite
Sales reached their low/lowest point in June

The closure of our Lahore plant in January accounts for the sharp fall ...

To account for means to be the reason for
This is a useful term when talking about facts and figures
How would you account for the fall in sales?
The appointment of a new Sales Manager accounts for the rapid rise in sales last year
None also due to
The fall is due to the closure of the plant

... sales have continued to decline ...

Further examples
Sales have continued to fall
There has been a further fall/decline in sales

If you compare this six-month period ...

Note the use of a hyphen (-) in six month
Compare
a three-month period
a period of three months

... there has been very little change ...

Note the use of the present perfect when to describe change
Things haven't changed very much
Things have hardly changed
Change has been very slight
Sales have been steady

British/American differences

British	American
a one-off profit	a one-shot/one-time profit
closure	closing

Practice

1 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

example: First I'd like to talk ~~about~~ on how we organise training.

- Turnover increased by more than two per cent last year.
- Sales peaked in well in the first quarter of the year.
- Please bear with me while I find the reference.
- We're forecasting an increase of of two and three per cent.
- I'd like to finish by thanking you all for your very useful comments.
- We are forecasting a downturn in the market.
- Unfortunately, we had to shut down our Luftwa plant earlier this year.

2 Write what you would say in these presentation situations. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

example: Start a talk. Explain what you are going to talk about.

Hello everyone. My name's Hina Rosales and I'd like to talk about...

- You are giving a presentation and someone asks you to go back to a previous slide. What could you say as you are looking for it?
- Invite questions from the audience.
- Refer to some details on a graph or chart.
- Finish the talk. Thank the audience.

3 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- |                            |   |
|----------------------------|---|
| 1 That leads me to         | a we hope to finish things soon                                   |
| 2 As I mentioned earlier,  | b to contact me at any time                                       |
| 3 You are welcome          | c so many of you here   |
| 4 To summarise             | d there are some potential problems                               |
| 5 It's good to see         | e what I have said so far   |
| 6 Analysts are forecasting | f a very healthy outlook for the company                          |
| 7 Excuse me                | g my main point   |
| 8 The graph compares       | h for a moment.   |
| 9 Having said that,        | i the number of guests visiting the hotel over a six-month period |

4. Write the phrases in one of the three columns depending if they are up, down or the same.

Up	Down	The same
Sales have picked up

- Sales have picked up
- There has been an increase in sales
- Things are slowing down
- Turnover jumped last year
- It has stayed the same
- Overall there has been a decline in the market
- The company has recovered
- We have seen a rise in turnover
- There has been an upturn in the market
- We are experiencing a downturn
- There has been little change
- Sales have been steady during the year

5. Complete the sentences with words used in the dialogue and notes.

example: I'm not the best PCYS to answer that question.

- I didn't catch your point. Could you repeat it?
- Unfortunately the downward trend is going to continue
- I'd like to make another comment
- The results give a misleading impression of last year's performance
- What kind of growth figures are we hoping to achieve?
- We are very disappointed with the sharp decline in sales
- Sales reached their highest point in the summer
- A lot has happened during the previous six month

- 6 Complete the statements and questions using the verbs from the box. Use each verb once only.

catch	repeat	show	account	take give	cost	say	fall	beat

Example: I'd like to ask how much the project is going to cost.

- I'm afraid I can't say. I'll check for you.
- I'm sorry I didn't ask the question.
- Let me show it for you.
- I'm not quite ready. Can you wait with me?
- Of course give your time.
- I think these charts show a false picture.
- Yes, they don't really account the recent uptake in the market.
- By what percentage did turnover fall last year?
- By 5 per cent. I can't beat for it.

- 7 Match the graphs with the descriptions.

- The graph shows how sales have increased this year. Sales were very poor at the beginning of the year but they began to pick up in March and reached a peak in December. The outlook is very healthy.
- This has been a difficult year for the company. As you can see, the chart shows the dramatic fall in production at the beginning of the year. Things began to improve but in June there was a serious fire in our factory and this accounts for the sharp fall in production at that time. The situation hasn't changed very much since then.
- As you can see, we're looking at a growth rate of between 2 and 5 per cent in the three-month period, October to December. We're forecasting that this will be up on last year. We are quite happy with the situation.

5 Meetings

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

I'm trying to arrange a meeting for next week.

Can you make Thursday afternoon?

I don't think we need more than two hours.

I've booked the conference room for 2 o'clock.

I'll send you my draft proposals by Monday midday.

Who would like to take the minutes?

I'd like to leave them there until the next meeting.

What are your thoughts on that?

I'd like to make a point.

Of the fifty people I asked, only one did not agree with the idea.

Does everyone agree?

We made a very good case for changing the system.

Unfortunately they rejected nearly all of our proposals.

Only one of our proposals was accepted.

Here are the main points covered during the meeting.

I've attached the draft minutes of the meeting.

Please check if I have left anything out.

These are your action points.

Dialogues 1

Setting up a meeting (by phone)

- ① Hi, Anna (I'm trying to arrange a meeting for next week. Can you make Tuesday or Thursday afternoon?)
- ② Tuesday would be fine. What time?
- ③ What about 3 o'clock? I don't think we need more than two hours.
- ④ I agree. Is Jane coming, by the way?
- ⑤ I hope so – but I haven't asked him yet.

Postponing a meeting (by phone)

- ① Hello again. I hope this won't cause you any problems, but I've just spoken to Jane and he can't make Tuesday. Could we make it Thursday instead?
- ② Just a moment. I'll just check my diary. Right, I've got another meeting on Thursday but it should be finished by 3 PM. But, could we meet at 3:30 (just in case the meeting overruns)?
- ③ Of course. I know Jane will be pleased because he didn't want to miss the meeting.
- ④ Fine. See you on Thursday afternoon. I'll send you my draft proposals by Monday midday.
- ⑤ Thanks Anna. Bye.

Setting up a meeting (a voicemail message)

- ① I'm sorry I can't take your call at the moment. Please leave your message after the tone and I'll get back to you as soon as I can.
- ② Hello, Margaret, it's Dagmar here. I'd like to come over to Person next week to see you and Alex. There are some things we need to discuss relating to the arrangements for the conference. Any day next week except Friday would suit me. Could you check with Alex and get back to me? I think we'll need about three hours. Look forward to hearing from you.

Confirming a meeting by email

Notes

I'm trying to arrange a meeting for ...

Note the use of for for next month for next year
... for the project group

Can you make Tuesday?

This means: Can you come on Tuesday?
Note the different uses of make
Could we make it Thursday instead?
I could make it at 2 p.m.
I can't make the meeting

Is Jane coming, by the way?

Use by the way to ask for additional information.
By the way, is anyone else coming?
Who else is coming, by the way?
We can also use happen to
Do you happen to know if Jane is coming?

... it should be finished by 3.15

Note that times can be said in two ways
3.15 (a quarter past three or three fifteen)
3.20 (twenty past three or three twenty)
3.30 (half past three or three thirty)
3.45 (a quarter to four or three forty-five) by 3.15 means that it could finish earlier
Compare
at 3 o'clock (exactly 3 o'clock) at around 3 o'clock (maybe a little earlier or later than 3 o'clock)
Note that half three is informal British English or 3.30

... just in case the meeting overruns

Another way of saying
Just in case it doesn't finish on time

... he didn't want to miss the meeting

Note that miss has two meanings
Unfortunately I had to miss the meeting
I'm sorry I missed you earlier
Compare with:
Jane is a very important member of the team - we really miss her when he is away

I'd like to come over to Finance next week

come over means travel from one place to another
I'm thinking of coming over to visit
You must come over and see the new office

Any day next week except Friday would suit me

Any day leaves the options open. The writer could have said:
I'm free every day next week except Friday
That suits me means That is a good time for me.

Could you check with Alex and get back to us?

get back to leaves the method of communication open: the contact could be by phone, email or letter

... I'd order some sandwiches

Ordering sandwiches for a business lunch is not appropriate in all cultures! Sprinkle other useful lunch phrases
Would you prefer to eat out?
Is there anything you don't eat?
Are you a vegetarian?
We can have a working lunch
We often do business over lunch

Otherwise I'll see you in the office at 12.30

In this example, otherwise means if I don't hear from you

British/American differences

British

Differences in time
a quarter past three or three fifteen
a quarter to four or three forty-five

American

also: a quarter after three also: a quarter of four

Differences in dates

British - 1/11/02 = 1 November 2002

(the first of November, two thousand and three)

American - 1/11/02 = January 11, 2003

(eleven thousand, two thousand three)

Dialogues 2

Working through an agenda

- ① Was everyone got a copy of the agenda? Lucy: could you take the minutes, please?
- ② No problem
- ③ Thanks. So, let's start. As we're rather short of time today, I'd like to leave item four until the next meeting. Is that OK with everyone?
- ④ That's fine with me
- ⑤ Good, spoken we look at item one? That's John's proposal that future department team meetings should be held away from the office. What are your thoughts on this?

Reporting back to a meeting

- ⑥ John, could you give us your report?
- ⑦ Certainly. As you know, I was asked to find out what the people in my department thought about arranging more meetings away from the office. I found that most of my staff were opposed to the idea. The majority feeling was that they would prefer to organise meetings in this building.
- ⑧ That's interesting. Sandra, what did you find out?
- ⑨ Quite the opposite. In my department, all the fifty people I asked, only five did not like the idea of having meetings away from the office.

Reaching an agreement

- ⑩ I think we should abandon the idea altogether. Does everyone agree?
- ⑪ Not really. I think we need to send a questionnaire to all the staff so we can find out exactly what they think.
- ⑫ Is that really necessary? You've heard what John and Sandra have said – there are so many different views. It's not worth it.
- ⑬ I suppose you're right. It just seemed like a good idea to me.
- ⑭ It's a good idea. Perhaps we could look at it again next year?

Making a point

- ⑮ The other point I want to make is that we need to be informed about the dates of meetings well in advance. I was told about the date of this meeting very late and that caused me a lot of problems. Some people were not able to come at all. We really must avoid this in the future. Communication is very bad in this company.
- ⑯ That's not true. Some people simply do not read their meetings. The date was set three weeks ago and everyone was told then.

Notes

could you take the minutes, please?

The minutes are the written record of what is discussed during a meeting.

The agenda is the list of items discussed in a meeting.

Minutes are taken during a meeting.

The manager of a meeting can be agenda up and approved.

I'd like to leave this for until the next meeting.

We usually talk about items or points on an agenda.

... can we look at this one?

Note that we can look at an item on the agenda. Some other useful verbs and prepositions:

Let's move on to item two on the agenda.

Can we go through the minutes?

We need to vote on it.

What are your thoughts on this?

Asking for opinions:

How do you feel about that?

What do you think?

I'd like to hear everyone's opinion.

I was asked to find out what the people in my department thought ...

Reporting back:

It was my job to find out about ...

You asked me to find out about ...

I've talked to the office staff and the general opinion is ...

The majority feeling was ...

Majority opinions:

Most people are in favour of the change.

The majority opinion is in favour.

Minority opinions:

Not many people agree with the plan.

The minority opinion is against it.

British/American differences

British

favour enjoyment

American

favor

enjoyable

... of the fifty people I asked, only five ...

More, number and percentage:

One in fifty agreed with the plan.

Two in three disagreed it.

Nearly 100 per cent of the staff agreed to the agreement.

A quarter of the staff were in favor.

Does everyone agree?

Ways to find out if there is agreement:

Are we all in agreement?

Do you have the same opinion?

Does anyone disagree?

Is that really necessary?

really is used more in spoken English to emphasize what you are saying:

Are you really sure?

Is he really leaving the company?

They really don't want to leave the office.

I suppose you're right.

The speaker uses suppose to admit that the other speaker is, in fact, right.

The other point I want to make ...

Some alternative expressions:

I'd like to make another point.

Just one other point.

I'd like to make one final point.

We really must avoid this in the future.

Making a strong statement:

It's vital that we avoid this in the future.

It's essential that we make changes.

It's crucial that people should read their messages.

That's not true.

Note that this is a very direct statement and could be seen as rude unless you are very direct alternatives:

I'm sorry but I don't agree.

I don't think that's true.

I'm not sure that's true.

Is that really true?

Dialogues 3

A follow-up phone call (1)

- ① Hi, Katy. I'm just phoning to let you know what happened in the meeting.
- ② Thanks. So how did it go?
- ③ Bad news I'm afraid. Terry rejected all of our proposals to change suppliers to AXK. Some of the managers agreed that we needed to change, but Anton Trolnov persuaded them to leave things as they are.
- ④ So what reasons did he give?
- ⑤ Anton said he thought that the current arrangements were 'good enough' and finally everyone else agreed with him.
- ⑥ I don't believe it. How can they be so short-sighted?

A follow-up phone call (2)

- ⑦ Hello again, Katy. I thought I should let you know immediately that Anton has been having second thoughts. He's been through the figures which I presented at the meeting again and he now thinks we've made a good case for moving our business over to AXK.
- ⑧ Do you want me to do anything?
- ⑨ No, but thanks for offering. Anton would like me to provide some more information about AXK at another meeting to be held next week. I'll call you tomorrow so we can discuss details then.
- ⑩ Fine. Speak to you then.

Action points (on a dictaphone)

Here are the main points covered during the meeting on February 14th and action to be taken:

- Jacques to produce a questionnaire to find out how the staff would like to spend the 'New Year bonus'.
  - Juliet to research costs for proposed building project.
  - Winston to look into improving our security systems.
  - Tree-planting project – no decision made, leave until the next meeting.
- The next meeting will be on March 3rd.

Sending minutes by email

Notes

I'm just planning to let you know —

Announcing the reason for a call

I'm just planning to say thank you for doing the minutes

I'm just calling to remind you about next week's meeting

Bad news I'm afraid

The speaker says bad news at the beginning of the sentence for emphasis. He could also have said:

I'm afraid I have some bad news

Other examples:

Good news, I'm happy to say

I'm happy to say I have some good news

... other reasons did he give?

Note the use of give to give a reason/reasons to give an explanation/explanations

... short-sighted

When you only think about the present, not the future

I thought I should let you know immediately —

You can also say I wanted to remind or I wanted to let you know what happened

I thought in this situation

I wanted to let you know what happened

Accept has been having second thoughts

To have second thoughts means to change your opinion after you have thought about it again

Are you having second thoughts?

On second thoughts I'd like to accept the proposal

... he now thinks we've made a good case —

The speaker uses the word now to show that he has changed his mind

British/American differences

British

Bad news I'm afraid

On second thoughts

American

There's bad news

(Also used in British English)

On second thought

I'll call you tomorrow or we can discuss details then.

I will call is usually reduced to I'll call in spoken English. It implies a (probable) firm arrangement

I'll let you know

I'll send you a message

I'll organise it, etc.

Here are the main points —

We can start the memo with Here are or simply use the following:

The main points

Action points

Desirable to produce a questionnaire —

Note the use of the infinitive to in these statements. This is very common when writing informal action points from a meeting

Desirable to research costs for the proposed building project

Wishful to look into improving our security systems

... for proposed building project

Note how the article the (for the proposed project) can be left out when the memo is in note form

no decision made

No decision was made

Auxiliary verbs (used in this structure) can be left out when you write/speak in note form

I've attached the draft minutes of the meeting

Alternatives:

The draft minutes are attached

Revised draft minutes (more formal)

Drafts can be first drafts, rough drafts or final drafts

check if I have left anything out

Other possibilities

Let me know if I have forgotten anything

Check if I have made any mistakes

Practice

- 1 Complete the sentences using the verbs from the box below.
Use each verb once only.

cancel	confirm	miss	raise	make give	report	happen	leave	abandon example I'd like to cancel the meeting for next week.

- Can you confirm the meeting on Tuesday?
- I hope that she changed her mind about you any problems.
- I must hurry. I don't want to miss the meeting.
- Do you know to know if Matsko is going to be there?
- I don't like it all. We should abandon the idea.
- Let's postpone the decision on this point until the next meeting.
- I'll talk to the staff and report back to you next week.
- Did Tonya give a reason why she couldn't attend?
- We have a lot of things to discuss in the meeting.

- 2 Complete the sentences with words taken from the dialogues.
The first letter of each word is provided.

- The m of the staff were in favour.
- Can we look at the first i on the agenda?
- Is it a to send an agenda beforehand?
- I'd like to leave point two u the next meeting.
- Can we go t the report now?
- I can meet any day next week a Monday.
- Does Tuesday s you?

- 3 Complete the sentences with one of the alternatives.

example I'm phoning to let you know what happened. let/explain

- Who is going to take the minutes? make/take
- Could you tell us when you know the answer? tell/say
- I'd like to make a point. make/mention
- We need to take a date for the meeting. take/set
- We made a good case for changing the system. made/test
- Are you having second thoughts about the proposal? having/taking
- All of our proposals were disagreed. disagreed/rejected

4 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

Context The meeting should be finished by 3 p.m.

- I looked the room at 1 p.m.
- I'll see you on Thursday at 11 o'clock.
- I'd like to hear everyone's thoughts on the proposal.
- Of the ten people I asked, only one was against the idea.
- It seems like a good idea to me.
- Can we move it to the next item on the agenda?
- Most of the participants were in favour of the suggestion.
- One of twenty of the staff are unhappy with working conditions.
- Could you look up the minutes and let me know if I've forgotten anything?
- I hope I haven't left anything out.

5 Write what you would say in these situations. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

Context Check that everyone has a copy of the agenda.

- Has everyone got a copy of the agenda? Yes, I have. 1
- Suggest leaving the next item on the agenda until the next meeting.
I'd like to suggest that we leave the next item on the agenda until the next meeting. 2
- Ask if everyone agrees that date of the next meeting should be changed.
Does everyone agree that the date of the next meeting should be changed? 3
- Ask Fiona if she is going to attend the next meeting.
Are you going to attend the next meeting? 4
- Call a colleague to tell her/him what happened in the meeting.
I'm just phoning to tell you what happened in the meeting. 5
- Tell a colleague that you are sending the agenda as an email attachment.
I've sent the agenda as an email attachment. 6
- Say that you have one more point to make.
Just one more point to make. 7
- Ask what people think about the idea.
What do you think about the idea? 8

6 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- |                                 |  |
|---------------------------------|--|
| 1 I'd like to leave point three | a are in favour of the changes.              |
| 2 The majority feeling          | b and we can discuss details then.           |
| 3 You've all heard              | c is that people want to work shorter hours. |
| 4 Very few people               | d I'll expect to see you at 2 p.m.           |
| 5 Bad news                      | e what Mark has said about this.             |
| 6 I'll call you tomorrow        | f until the next meeting.                    |
| 7 Could you check the dates     | g suits me.                                  |
| 8 If I don't hear from you,     | h I'm afraid                                 |
| 9 Any day except Thursday       | i and get back to me.                        |

7 Complete the sentences with a form of the verb in brackets. Refer to the dialogue and notes.

Notes: In John: I'm trying (try) to arrange a meeting for next week

- I hope it (not cause) you any problems if we postpone the meeting.
- I (order) some sandwiches for lunch.
- I'm sorry I (miss) the last meeting.
- I (see) you in the conference room at 3 p.m.
- (everyone's agreed)* with the proposals? Good, then let's move on.
- Well, Anton, I (call) to let you know what happened in the meeting.
- I don't think that Margaret (read) the report.
- Margaret finds (find out) about tree-planting costs.
- It (lack) the minutes from the last meeting.
- I (have) second thoughts about your proposals.

6

Entertaining and socialising

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

Would you like tea or coffee?

How do you like your coffee?

Can I have a soft drink?

Could you translate the menu for me, please?

Do you have an English menu?

We're ready to order

That was delicious

Can I have the bill please?

So where do you live?

In a small town not far from Milan

Did you watch the match on TV last night?

Where are you going for your holidays this year?

We're planning to go to Italy

I've been invited to dinner with the Managing Director this evening

I'd like to take a small present. Do you have any suggestions?

I'm sure she'd like some flowers

It's a formal dinner

We're having an informal reception

Dialogues 1

Coffee or tea?

- Ⓐ: Would you like some coffee?
- Ⓑ: Do you have any tea?
- Ⓐ: Yes, we do. Do you take milk and sugar?
- Ⓑ: No thanks.
- Ⓐ: Can I have a soft drink, please?
- Ⓑ: Yes, of course. We have some orange juice and some sparkling water.
- Ⓑ: I'll have an orange juice, please.

Translating the menu

- Ⓐ: I hope you like Russian food. Let me translate the menu for you. I recommend the set menu which is 'hachki' – that's borscht soup, followed by 'bougens', which is a kind of lamb stew cooked in spices – it comes with mashed potato and salad.
- Ⓑ: Sounds good. What about dessert?
- Ⓐ: There's a choice of ice cream.
- Ⓑ: I'm happy with that. Let's order.

Ordering a meal (1)

- Ⓐ: We're ready to order. To start, I'd like chicken soup and my colleague would like the grilled sardines.
- Ⓑ: Thank you. And for your main course?
- Ⓐ: I'd like fried chicken and French fries and, was it roast duck and baked rice?
- Ⓑ: That's right. With a green side salad, please.
- Ⓐ: Thank you. And to drink?
- Ⓑ: We'd like a bottle of sparkling water, please?

Ordering a meal (2)

- Ⓐ: Are you ready to order?
- Ⓑ: Yes please. I'd like the steak, please.
- Ⓐ: How would you like it cooked?
- Ⓑ: Medium rare.
- Ⓐ: Thank you. Are you having a starter?
- Ⓑ: No thanks. I'm in rather a hurry.

Paying the bill

- Ⓐ: That was very good. Can we have the bill, please?
- Ⓑ: Here you are, sir.
- Ⓐ: Excuse me, but could you tell me what this is for?
- Ⓑ: It's for the bread.
- Ⓐ: Oh yes, I see. Do you take credit cards?
- Ⓑ: I'm sorry, we don't. If you need some cash, there's a cash machine just across the road.

Notes

Would you like some coffee?

You can also ask if someone would like a drink or snack by using the word with many alternatives:

More: coffee? Tea? Sugar? Milk?

Do you take milk and sugar?

Also note:

How do you like your coffee?

Just a little milk, please

Help yourself to milk and sugar.

No milk for me, thanks

Can I have a soft drink, please?

Soft drinks are non-alcoholic drinks

Four types include: orange juice, apple juice, grapefruit juice

I'd prefer water

Would you like sparkling or still water?

Let me translate the menu for you

When you need a translation:

Could you translate the menu?

What's that in Italian?

Do you have an English menu?

... 'Barabá', that's beetroot soup ...

Language for explaining the menu

It is a specialty of this region

Would you like to try one of the 'specials'?

It is a kind of soup

It tastes like chicken

It's delicious. I recommend it.

We're ready to order

Or the waitress/waiter can say:

Are you ready to order?

Can I take your order?

And for your main course?

Stages of a meal

I don't really want a starter

Can I see the dessert menu?

Thank you. That was very good/cheerful

It's like fried chicken

Some methods of cooking

roast (roast duck, roast beef)

boiled (boiled rice, boiled potatoes)

steamed (steamed vegetables, steamed fish)

grilled (grilled potatoes)

Mixed rice

Other ways of cooking steak rare, medium, well done

Can we have the bill please?

The waiter might ask:

Would you like anything else?

Possible replies:

No, just the bill, please

Another coffee, please

Excuse me, but could you tell me what this is for?

Asking about the bill

Sorry. I don't understand the bill

Is service included?

We ordered one salad but you've charged us for two

Do you take credit cards?

Other useful phrases

Can I pay by card?

How much do you normally tip? (most a question we usually ask the waiter!)

... there's a cash machine just across the road

A cash machine, cash dispenser or cash point (UK) = an ATM (Automatic Teller Machine) (USA)

British/American differences

British

Do you take milk and sugar?

beetroot soup

mashed potatoes

Can I have the bill

please?

a starter

Is service included?

American

Do you use milk and sugar?

beef soup

mashed potatoes

Can I have the check

please?

an appetizer

Is the gratuity included?

Phrases for beginning meals

There is no special phrase in English for starting a meal. If something is said, it might be bon appétit or, informally, Let's start. If wine is served, Cheers or To your health can be used.

Dialogues 2

Where you live

- Ⓐ Where do you live, Xavier? /
- Ⓑ In Sitges, near Barcelona
- Ⓐ Oh, I know Barcelona very well! It's one of my favourite cities.
- Ⓑ And near Sitges is a beautiful little town just along the coast from Barcelona. I've lived there all my life. It's a great place for a holiday but hard to go out of season.

Starting a conversation

- Ⓐ Did you see the football match last night? /
- Ⓑ Yes, I did. I thought Owen played very well.
- Ⓐ So did I. I thought his first goal was fantastic. So you like football, do you? /
- Ⓑ I quite like it. I watch international matches and I follow my local team, but I prefer basketball.

Family matters

- Ⓐ Where are you going for your summer holiday? /
- Ⓑ I'm going to the French Alps with the family. We all want to do different things, so it's a great place for us. My son and daughter can go mountain biking and my partner and I can go walking and play some golf.
- Ⓐ How old are your children? /
- Ⓑ Eleven and thirteen. What about you? Do you have any children? /
- Ⓑ Yes, but they're all grown up. They don't want to come on holiday with us any more.

Cultural advice

- Ⓐ I've been invited to dinner with Paulo and Maria this evening but I don't know what to wear. I'd also like to take a small present. Do you have any suggestions? /
- Ⓑ Just be casual. You sure they'd appreciate some flowers and maybe something from Scotland.
- Ⓐ I've got a box of Scottish biscuits with me.
- Ⓑ That would be fine.

Sensitive issues

- Ⓐ I'm looking forward to meeting David this afternoon.
- Ⓑ Oh, haven't you heard? He's left the company.
- Ⓐ I'm sorry to hear that. What happened? I thought he was doing very well with you.
- Ⓑ He was, but there were a few problems. I'm afraid I can't really go into it now. /
- Ⓐ I understand. Tell me another time.

Notes

Where do you live, Javier?

Note how English speakers often use a person's first name to be friendly and engaging. Note, however, that this is not appropriate in all cultures.

Oh, I know Barcelona very well!

A typical expressed response for keeping a conversation going – some other possibilities:

Oh, I've been there

Really? What's it like?

Lucky you!

That's a nice place to live

It's a great place for a holiday ...

Some other ways of recommending (and not recommending) somewhere for a holiday

I always spend my summer holidays there

You must go there

I wouldn't recommend it

It isn't a good place for a holiday

Did you see the football match last night?

Not everyone likes football! Some other ways to open a conversation

How was the weather when you left home?

Have you seen any good films recently?

Have you bought any souvenirs?

So you like football, do you?

Note the use of the 'question tag' for engaging the other speaker

Terrible weather, isn't it?

You're working next week, aren't you?

Are you coming this evening, aren't you?

Where are you going for your summer holiday?

Keeping the conversation going

Do you travel a lot on business?

What are you doing at the weekend?

What are your first impressions of the town?

My son and daughter can go anywhere hiking ...

Note some verbs which go with sports go hiking/swimming/fishing play tennis/pool/football

do gymnastics/weightlifting

Do you have any children?

Talking about your relatives

My uncle/aunt worked for the company

My niece/nephew lives in Canada

My cousin is getting married next year

I don't know what to wear

Some advice

It's a very informal

Wear something casual

You'll need to wear a collar and tie

What you're wearing is fine

I'm sure they'd appreciate some flowers ...

They'd appreciate ... means: They'd really like ...

I'm sorry to hear that

Other possible responses

Really?

That's a shame!

I don't believe it!

I can't really go into it now.

When you would prefer not to say anything

Sorry, but I don't really want to talk about it

Do you mind if I tell you later?

Can we talk about it later?

I understand

A useful response to demonstrate that the speaker is happy to be told the news another time. Alternatives

No problem!

British/American differences

British

football match summer holiday
a box of biscuits
You'll need to wear a collar and tie

American

soccer game summer vacation
a package of cookies
You'll need to wear a shirt and tie

Practice

1 Write what you would say in these situations. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

example: Tell the wait/waitress that you would like to order your meal

We're ready to order. / We'd like to order.

a You don't understand the menu written in Turkish. Ask a colleague for help

b Order something to eat in a restaurant

c Ask for the bill

d Check an item on the bill that you do not understand

e Ask a business acquaintance where he/she lives

f Say something about where you live

g Say something about your holiday plans for the year

h You hear that a business contact has left the company. What do you say?

2 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

example: How do you say that... in English?

a What would you like... for your main course?

b The grilled chicken comes... with fried potatoes

c Help yourselves... to the salad

d Can I pay... with credit card?

e Sydney is a great place... for a holiday

f Where are you going... on holiday this year?

g I can't really go... into detail now.

h Can we talk... at a later?

- 3 Complete the phrases 1–8 with the verbs in the box and match them with a–h to make questions.

	accept	wear	serve	take	set	happened	watch	know
1	Can I serve
2	Do you _____ all
3	Do you _____ if there is
4	Do you _____
5	Would anyone like to _____
6	Did you _____
7	What clothes should I _____
8	What has _____
					a	to David? Is he OK?
					b	the basketball game yesterday?
					c	the dessert menu?
					d	credit cards?
					e	sugar in your coffee?
					f	to the reception?
					g	a cash machine nearby?
					h	the chicken and vegetable soup, please?

- 4 Complete the dialogue. Choose from the phrases in the box below.

a	I wasn't surprised	e	Sarah is leaving the company next month
b	So, what's happening at work	f	Yes, I heard that c	I thought she really enjoyed her job	g	How are things
d	Fine, thanks	h	Really

- A Hi Nigel! ☺ How are things?
- B ☹ Not very good. ☹ My boss is really annoyed with me.
- A: Some bad news, I'm afraid. ☹ What's happened?
- B ☹ I've been accused of stealing a laptop.
- A: I couldn't believe it. ☹ What's the story?
- B ☹ I was in the office when I noticed a laptop was missing.
- A: What did you do?
- B ☹ I reported it to the police.
- A: What's the result?
- B ☹ I've been asked to leave the company.

- 5 Choose an appropriate response.

- |    |  |   |                          |
|----|--|---|--------------------------|
| 1  | Do you have any turkey?                    | a | Yes, I did               |
| 2  | Do you take sugar?                         | b | It's a kind of bread     |
| 3  | „And for your main course?                 | c | I understand             |
| 4  | Excuse me, what's this for?                | d | It's a service charge    |
| 5  | And what would you like to drink?          | e | Too, please              |
| 6  | How would you like it cooked?              | f | I'm very sorry, we don't |
| 7  | Did you play golf yesterday?               | g | I'll have the chicken    |
| 8  | I can't really discuss this now            | h | Not really               |
| 9  | Would you recommend Elchile for a holiday? | i | I'd like a fried         |
| 10 | What's a tortilla?                         | j | No, thanks               |

- 5 Which of the following sports and activities go with the verbs play and go. Look the words up in a dictionary if you do not know them.

walking	golf	tennis	climbing	badminton	solleyball	hiking baseball	drag	skiing	ping pong	cycling	sailing play _____

go _____

- 7 Complete the sentences using the words in the box.

aunt	stepbro	son	cousin	uncle
------	---------	-----	--------	-------

- My brother's son is my _____
- My mother's sister is my _____
- My brother's son is my daughter's _____
- My father's brother is my _____
- My sister's daughter is my _____

- 8 Put the dialogue in the right order.

- What are you going to do while you're there?
- Why Harford?
- It's a beautiful part of the world.
- Where are you going?
- To the UK.
- and we have some friends who live there.
- We're staying in a small hotel in Harford.
- for your holiday this year?
- We're planning to do some walking.
- and there are some excellent places to eat.
- Maybe next year.
- You must go there!

A, B, C,

7 Travel

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

I'd like an aisle seat, please

I'd like to sit next to my colleague.

I only have one bag to check in

I'd like to book a hire car for three days

Do I need an international driving licence?

How would you like to pay?

Do you take credit cards?

A single to Munich, please

Do I need to reserve a seat?

Is the seat reservation included in the price of the ticket?

Do you have a double room for two nights?

A non-smoking room please, with a bath and a balcony.

We need your credit card number to hold the reservations.

I'm calling from room 28

The TV doesn't work

The bed hasn't been made

I'd like to change my room

I don't have any cash on me

That's OK. You can pay by credit card

Dialogues 1

Checking in for a flight

- ① Can I have your ticket and passport, please? Thank you. Would you like an aisle or a window seat?
- ② I'd like an aisle seat if possible.
- ③ OK. I have given you a seat in the exit row. Is that all right?
- ④ Yes, that's fine. Thanks. And I'd like to sit next to my colleague if possible.
- ⑤ I'm sorry. We don't have any more seats together. Could you talk to the cabin attendant when you board the plane?

Hiring a car

- ① Hello, I'd like to book a hire car for three days from March 14th –17th, please. Do I need an international driving licence to drive here?
- ② No, but there is a charge for an extra driver.
- ③ So how much will it cost in total?
- ④ $320. How would you like to pay?
- ⑤ By credit card, please.

Taking the train

- ① A single to Munich, please.
- ② First or second class?
- ③ First class, please.
- ④ OK. That will be 70 euros. Please sign here.
- ⑤ Do I need to reserve a seat?
- ⑥ No, the seat reservation is included in the price.

Booking a hotel

- ① Wellington Hotel. Can I help you?
- ② Yes, I've been trying to book a room on your hotel website but I can't complete the booking.
- ③ Sorry, sir. I can do the booking for you.
- ④ Thank you. I'd like to book a twin room for two nights, the 12th and 13th of June.
- ⑤ Just one moment. I'll check our availability. Can I have your name please?
- ⑥ Yes, it's Clark. I won't be arriving until 11:00 pm. Do you need my credit card number to hold the reservation?
- ⑦ Yes, please.

Checking into a hotel

- ① Hello, I have a reservation in the name of Perry.
- ② I'm sorry, I cannot find a booking in that name. Did you book the room yourself?
- ③ No, my company, Carina, booked it.
- ④ Ah yes, here it is. Could you fill in this form, please? Would you like a smoking or non-smoking room?
- ⑤ A non-smoking room, please, with a bath and a balcony if possible.
- ⑥ We have a non-smoking room with a balcony on the 10th floor. Enjoy your stay.

Notes

Would you like an aisle or a window seat?

Seating preferences

I'd prefer an aisle seat.

I don't really want a middle seat.

Do you have a seat in the exit row?

I'd like to change my seat.

... I'd like to book a taxi car ...

Useful phrases when you need to hire a car

Is there a charge for an extra driver?

Does it include insurance?

Where do I return the car?

Do you need my driving licence?

How would you like to pay?

Other language for making payments.

How do you want to pay?

Are you paying by cheque/credit/debit card?

I'd prefer to pay in cash.

A single to Munich, please

Useful language at the ticket office:

I'd like a first class return to London, please.

Which platform do I need?

Is there a buffet car?

Do I need to reserve a seat?

More language for making reservations

Do I need to book in advance?

Are seat reservations compulsory?

I'd like a forward/backward-facing seat.

Will the train be crowded?

I'd like to book a twin room ...

Some hotel room options

A double/single room

A quiet room with a good view

A suite with a balcony

An en suite suite is a room with a separate bathroom

A shared bathroom

I won't be arriving until 11:00 p.m.

Alternatively we can say:

I hope to be there by 11:00 p.m.

I am hoping to arrive by 11:00 p.m.

I should be there by 11:00 p.m.

I have a reservation in the name of Perry

When you arrive at the hotel, you can say:

My name is (Mr) Perry.

Do you have a reservation for a (Mr) Perry?

The reservation was made by my company.

Could you fill in this form, please?

Some hotels might not ask you to fill in a form

I just need your passport.

Just sign here, please.

British/American differences

British

a hire car

a non-smoking room

a double/tuple room

a single = room with one double bed

a double = a room with two double beds

a queen = a room with one queen size bed

a king = a room with one king size bed

an ensuite room

Note: this phrase is not used in American English

American

a rental car

a no smoking room

Note: hotels in the US use varying terminology but these are usual

a single = room with one double bed

a double = a room with two double beds

a queen = a room with one queen size bed

a king = a room with one king size bed

Note: this phrase is not used in American English

We have a non-smoking room with a balcony on the 10th floor.

Note: that the 10th floor in the UK would be the 11th floor in the US

UK Ground floor

US First floor

UK First floor

US Second floor

I just need to see your passport.

Americans usually use their driver's licence or a special ID card for identification

Other useful travel vocabulary

Platform 1

Track 1

Single ticket

One-way ticket

Return ticket

Round trip

Underground

Subway

Some UK - US spelling differences

driving licence/driver's licence, centre/center,

cheque/check, colour/color, theatre/theatre,

travel/travel, travel/travel, defence/defense,

lift/lift, practice/practice, work and round

• Dialogues 2

At the check-in desk

- ① Can I see your hand luggage, please?
- ② I just have this bag and a laptop.
- ③ Could you put them on the scales? I'm afraid the bag will have to go in the hold.
- ④ Is that really necessary? It's very small.
- ⑤ I'm afraid so.

A flight delay

- ① I'm sorry German, but I'm not going to get to the meeting on time. There was a delay coming into the airport and I've just missed my connection. If I'm lucky, I'll get a seat on the flight that leaves in half an hour.
- ② Don't worry, as long as you're here for the afternoon session, it doesn't matter too much.
- ③ Thanks, if I let you know if I don't manage to catch the flight, otherwise expect to see me about 12.30 – in time for lunch.

A tight connection

- ① Excuse me, I have a connection to Chicago at 5.00. Am I going to make it?
- ② Yes, there will be a minibus waiting at the gate to take you to terminal B. There shouldn't be a problem.
- ③ What about my luggage? I'm worried that my bags won't make the connection even if I do.
- ④ Don't worry, the minibus will take you and your luggage. There are some other passengers who also have tight connections.
- ⑤ Thanks for your help, I'll keep my fingers crossed.

A hotel mix-up

- ① Hello, Reception.
- ② Hello, it's Amanda Lee from Room 205. I asked for a non-smoking room but someone has been smoking in this room. Oh yes, and the TV doesn't work. Also there are no towels in the room and the bed hasn't been made. I'd like to change rooms.
- ③ I'm very sorry, madam. I'll organise a different room for you and send someone up immediately to help you with your luggage.

A payment problem

- ① I'm sorry but we need some identification if you'd like to pay by credit card.
- ② Oh, I don't think I have any identification with me and I don't have enough cash. I'm sure I paid by credit card last time I was here.
- ③ Yes, we do accept credit cards but only if the bill is under 100 euros. I'm afraid it's a security rule.
- ④ I understand. Can I pay 100 euros with my card and the rest in cash?
- ⑤ Yes, that would be fine.

Notes

I just have this bag and a laptop

just means only in this example. Other examples

I just need five minutes

I just need to check your visa

... the bag will have to go in the hold.

Problems with hand luggage

It can go under my seat.

Can I put it in the overhead lockers?

It's too large to go in the cabin

It's fragile

... I'm not going to get to the meeting on time.

On time means exactly on time.

Compare

I'll be there in time for lunch (just before lunch)

I won't be there in time for Peter's talk (but I will be there)

... I've just missed my connection.

Catching another flight

What's the next flight?

Where's the check-in desk?

How far is it to the gate?

I'll let you know if I don't manage to catch the flight. ...

Notice how we can use manage:

I just managed to catch the flight

I hope you manage with all your luggage – it looks heavy

Can you manage? Can I help you?

... there will be a seamless meeting at the gate. ...

Making sure you catch the flight

I'm worried I won't make the connection

Are you sure I'll make it?

You'd have to hurry

I'll keep my fingers crossed

If you want to wish someone else good luck say:

Fingers crossed!

Good luck!

I ask if for a non-smoking room. ...

Other complaints

The TV doesn't work

The air conditioning doesn't work

It's very noisy in the room

The room is very dusty/dirty/loosey

... the bed hasn't been made

Note the use of the present perfect passive

The room hasn't been cleaned

The bed hasn't been changed

Compare with the simple past passive

The room was cleaned this morning

The bed wasn't changed yesterday

... we need some identification. ...

Some responses

What kind of identification do you need?

I don't have my passport on me

I've left my documents behind

... I don't have enough cash.

Problems

I've only got twelve thousand yen

I've spent all my money

I'm sorry to ask, but can you lend me some money?

... we do accept credit cards. ...

do is used here for emphasis – don't overuse it. We would normally say

We accept credit cards

British/American differences

British

the hold

overhead lockers

The bins haven't been stripped

I've left my

documents behind

American

the cargo compartment

overhead bins

The wastebaskets

haven't been emptied

I left my documents

behind

American English

usually uses the simple past tense: I cancelled (yesterday)

cancelled

Practice

- 1 Complete the sentences with words used in the dialogues and notes. Write the words in the grid to identify the European capital city in the shaded vertical row.

- Sorry, I wanted a return ticket, not a ...
- I have a ... is the name of Tiller
- I'm keeping my fingers ... that I'll make my flight connection
- We need to see some ... - a passport, a driving licence
- If I'm very ... I'll catch the flight
- I thought the room was on suite. I'd prefer not to share it ...
- I have a superb room with a south-facing ...
- I asked for a window seat, not an ... seat
- It took so long to clear passport control that I ... my flight

- 2 Write what you would say in these situations. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

example You are at the flight check-in desk. The check-in assistant insists that your hand luggage needs to go in the hold?

Is that necessary? It's very light/small etc.

- Tell the online check-in clerk your seating preferences
- Phone a hotel and book a double room
- You arrive at your hotel. What do you say to the receptionist?
- Phone a colleague to say that your flight has been delayed
- You have a tight flight connection. Explain your problem to the cabin attendant

3 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

EXAMPLE I don't have my passport on me.

- Please fill in the registration form.
- Was the booking made on the name of Kerry?
- Is there room for your bag under your seat?
- The flight leaves half an hour before the departure time.
- I'd like to hire a car for a week.
- If we leave now, we should be there in time.
- I asked for a room with a bath.
- Unfortunately, I don't have any identification on me.

4 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- |                          |                                |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 Someone will help you  | a cash on me                   |
| 2 I don't have enough    | b I won't make the connection  |
| 3 I'll let you know if   | c by 3 p.m.                    |
| 4 I'm worried that       | d with your luggage            |
| 5 I won't be arriving    | e a non-smoking room, please.  |
| 6 I'm hoping to be there | f I manage to catch the flight |
| 7 I'd like to pay        | g until 3 p.m.                 |
| 8 I would like           | h by credit card               |

5 Write alternative expressions. Refer to the dialogues and notes.

EXAMPLE Is it necessary to reserve a seat?

Do I need to reserve a seat?

- a Does the price include a seat reservation?

- b I'll arrive at 11 p.m. or later.

- c I'd rather pay in cash.

- d A car will be waiting for you outside the terminal.

- e I'll call you if I don't manage to catch the flight.

6 Rewrite these sentences in the passive.

Someone has made the bed.

The bed hasn't been made.

No-one told me about the flight delay.

I wasn't told about the flight delay.

a They put my luggage in the hold.

b No-one has cleaned the room today.

c Someone has already filled in the form.

d Someone booked the taxi last night.

e They cancelled my flight.

f They gave me a first class ticket.

7 Match the statements and questions with the responses.

1 Can I have your name, please?

2 I'd like to book a room for Tuesday night.

3 I hope you catch the flight.

4 I've missed my connection.

5 Can I pay by credit card?

6 The TV in my room doesn't work.

7 What kind of identification do you need?

8 Where do I need to sign?

a A single or a double?

b When's the next flight?

c I'll send someone to look at it.

d Yes, of course.

e It's Ahmed Salem.

f Can I see your passport, please?

g Here, please.

h Thanks. Wish me luck!

Some useful phrases.

Listen to the recording and repeat.

Hi, Jenna. Hope you're feeling better.
I'm afraid I won't be able to see you on Thursday.
Let me know when you're next going to be in town.
Look forward to hearing from you.
Speak to you later.

Your training manager had asked me to write to you
Re: about organising language training.
I'll call you at the end of the week.
If you have any queries, please call me.

Many thanks for helping out with the conference.
I would like to apologise for the problems we had.
Let's hope we have better luck next time.

I would like to invite you to lunch next week.
Are you free for lunch on Friday?
Let me know if you can come.
Many thanks for the invitation.
I'd love to come.

We are sorry to inform you that Raj Singh has left the company.
I was very sorry to hear about Raj.
Please pass on my best wishes.

Messages 1

A first contact

A formal message

Everyday matters

A future meeting

Notes

Dear Mr/Ms

Use Dear with the person's title and surname when you have not written to the person before or when you have a formal relationship. If you are in doubt, it is better to be more, rather than less formal.

If you have any queries, please call me ...

This phrase is quite often used at the end of an email. Also:

If you have any questions, please call me

Yours sincerely

In formal emails, we can use the formal letter-writing phrase:

Start: Dear Mr/Ms/Ms Principle

End: Yours sincerely

Start: Dear Sir/Madam

End: Yours faithfully

Dear colleague

The use of a word like colleague is used when writing to an identifiable group in more formal correspondence. It can be singular or plural. Note also:

Dear friends, Dear members, Dear All, Dear Sir/Madam (when you do not know the name of the person you are writing to)

I am writing to inform you ...

Full verb forms (e.g. I'm writing) are often used in formal communications. Note the less formal (and more common) alternatives: I am writing (I'm writing) to inform you ...
I am sure (I'm sure) that we can be of help.
I will call (I'll call) you at the end of the week.
We will (We'll) contact you again.

Best regards

(With) best regards is a very common way to end an email and can be used in formal and informal contexts. There are many other ways to end, e.g.:

Regards, Best wishes, Yours, All the best

Hi Jane

The common, informal way to begin an email. You can also simply use a person's name at the beginning of a message (see A future meeting example on page 65)

Hope you're feeling better

Sortie: other opening phrases

Just to let you know that

Sorry to hear about

Thanks for the message

... I have to cover for her ...

to cover for means to do someone's job while the person is away

Who's covering for you?

We're so short-staffed that there is no-one to cover for me

Speak to you later

Phrases to indicate that you will be in contact later:

I'll send you a message later

Call me when you get the message

Let me know when you're next going to be in Salzburg ...

A friendly note to end. Some alternatives:

You must visit us again soon

It will great to see you

See you again soon

I look forward to hearing from you

Note that we is:

I look forward to hearing from you. Although quite formal, this phrase is very often used in emails. Also common:

I look forward to meeting/hearing you

British/American differences

British

If you have any queries ...

(This form queries is not used as frequently in American English as it is in British English)

American

Very sincerely

Sincerely

Messages 2

Saying thank you (1)

Saying thank you (2)

An invitation

Accepting an invitation

Declining an invitation

Notes

Many thanks for helping ...

Friendly informal thanks. Note also:
Once again, many thanks.
Many many thanks!

a public holiday ...

In the UK, public holidays are called bank holidays.

Anyway let's hope we have better luck in Yorkshire.

Anyway is often used when we want to make a different point, to move away from what we have just said.
Anyway, I don't want to think about it anymore.
Anyway, that's all I wanted to say.

Take care

A phrase normally only used when talking to good friends. We do not use this phrase or others such as Be good! Have fun! Lucky you! with our more formal business contacts.

I am writing to thank you for ...

Fairly formal language for saying thank you.
Note also:
We really appreciate all your help.
We're very grateful for your help.

I would like to apologise ...

A formal way to apologise. A more informal phrase:
I'm verghely sorry about it.

it clashed with the World Cup final!

When two appointments in a diary clash.
They happen at the same time.

we would like you to join us for lunch.

Note the other formal language used in this email. To be less formal, say:
Can you come to the Grand Prix?
I hope you can come to lunch.
Please come!

Let me know if you can attend.

A less formal way to say that is:
Let me know if you can make it.

I'd love to come ...

An informal enthusiastic response to an invitation. Some others:
That would be great.
That's a great idea.
I'd really look forward to it.

Please send me details of the event ...

An event is a special occasion.
It's going to be a very special event.
It took a long time to plan the event.

Many thanks for your kind invitation ...

Using a word such as kind emphasises the warmth of the thank you.
It was very kind of you to invite me.
Other ways of saying thank you:
Thank you for your excellent presentation.
Many thanks for the beautiful flowers.

Unfortunately I'll be abroad ...

You can avoid saying sorry by using unfortunately.
Unfortunately, I'm going to miss the presentation.
I won't be there, unfortunately.

I hope the event goes well for you.

A friendly remark when you cannot attend a meeting or event.
I hope it all goes well.
Good luck with everything.
I hope I'll be able to come next time.

British/American differences

British

thanks
bank holiday
apologise

American

thanks
holidays/public holiday apologize

Messages 3

Problems

Good news

A general announcement

For information

Passing on good wishes

Notes

— They are having problems arriving at the meeting...

Problems and difficulties
We're having some difficulties.
There's a problem.
It's difficult to arrange.

— Do you have any suggestions?

Looking for a solution
Any ideas?
Do you have any ideas?
How can we sort it out?
How can we 'solve' the problem?

— Good news!

Some enthusiastic responses to good news
What good news!
That's great news!
That's fantastic/wonderful news!

— It would be good to get together sometime next week...

To get together means to meet. (A get-together is an informal meeting, maybe a party.) Other ways to suggest a meeting:
Let's meet next week.
Let's meet up in the near future.
We must arrange to meet up soon.

— I'll set up a meeting.

Another way of saying this:
I'll arrange/organise a meeting.

— This is to let you know that...

Use This is in formal messages to refer to the message you are sending.
This is to inform you that the package will be late.
This is to remind you to call by 5 p.m.
Informal alternatives:
Just to let you know that the package will be late.
I'm just writing to say that...

— I'm sure that you will want to join us in wishing Wilfred good luck...

Note the use of join in formal messages.
I hope you join us for dinner.
Please join us in the evening if you can.

— I am sorry to inform you that...

Less formal:
Sorry to tell you that...
I'm writing to let you know that...
I'm afraid I have some bad news.

— I will be off work for two weeks...

Some alternative expressions:
She'll be on sick leave.
She'll be away from work.
She'll be at home.

— I was sorry to hear about Steven.

Expressions of sympathy:
I was very sad to hear the news.
Everyone was very upset about it.
We'll miss him.

— Please pass on my best wishes.

Some other sympathetic phrases:
I'll be thinking of him.
We hope he gets well soon.
Please pass our sincere condolences to his family (when someone has died).

British/American differences

British

go into hospital
How can we sort it out?

American

go into the hospital
How can we figure it out?

Expressions of sympathy

There are not really any major differences between British and American English when expressing sympathy. In both, the level of formality used will depend on how well you know the people concerned.

Practice

1 Complete the sentences with a preposition.

EXAMPLE: She's on sick leave.

- We will contact you again _____ the near future.
- I look forward _____ hearing from you.
- I'll call you _____ the end of the week.
- Please call me _____ 456355.
- Many thanks _____ all your help.
- Good luck _____ everything.
- I'm covering _____ Raj while he is away.
- He will be _____ work for two weeks due to illness.
- Please pass _____ our best wishes to him.
- We would like you to join us _____ visiting Wu Sea a happy retirement.

2 Some of these phrases are used formally and some informally. Tick the correct column.

	formal	informal a 1 Dear John
2 Hi John b 1 I am writing to inform you that 2 I'm writing to let you know that c 1 We're having a get-together
2 We're arranging a meeting
d 1 I would like to apologise for 2 Sorry about
e 1 Let me know if you can make it
2 Let me know if you can attend
f 1 I would be very pleased to come
2 I'd love to come
g 1 This is to let you know about 2 Just to let you know about

3 Write the sentences in this letter in the correct order.

Dear Mr Green

- a Members of our sales team will present the service
- b After the presentation
- c We would like to invite you to the launch of
- d and there will be an opportunity to ask questions
- e there will be dinner at the main restaurant
- f our new courier service on 6 March
- g I very much hope that you can attend
- h at the Grand Hotel at 6:30 p.m.

Best regards

Peter Paul

Dear Mr Green

Best regards

Peter Paul

4 Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box. Use each verb once only.

plans	must	know	must	hope
pass	join	call	get	thank write

example: I'm writing to inform you that the conference has been cancelled

- Your training manager has asked me to _____ to you
- I'll _____ you at the end of the week
- I _____ you're feeling better
- You _____ visit us again soon
- I'd like to _____ you for all your hard work
- Please _____ us for lunch on 15 November
- Can we _____ together sometime next week?
- I'm sorry Peter has left. We'll all _____ him
- We were very sad to hear about Hubert. Please _____ on our condolences
- Just a short note to let you _____ what's happening

5 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- |   |                                       |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| 1 I am sorry to inform you that I _____       | a hearing all your news               |
| 2 I'll call you when I _____                  | b goes well                           |
| 3 Let me know when you are next _____         | c all your help                       |
| 4 I'd like to thank you for _____             | d (going to bed) in London            |
| 5 I look forward to _____                     | e will be out of the office next week |
| 6 I hope that the party _____                 | f to write me                         |
| 7 Unfortunately, the event clashes with _____ | g happening next week                 |
| 8 It was very kind of you _____               | h get back to Cairo                   |
| 9 I need to tell you what is _____            | i an important meeting                |

6 Rewrite the phrases and sentences in a less formal way.

EXAMPLE Dear Thomas

Hi Thomas, Hello Thomas, Thomas

- We will contact you in the near future
- We would like to thank you for organising the conference
- This is to inform you that we have changed the date of the meeting
- Please let us know if you can attend
- We trust that you will be able to join us for dinner
- I will call you at the end of the week
- We wish you every success in the future
- We are organising a party next week

7 Complete the sentences. The first letters of the missing words spell a word you will 'appreciate'.

- It would be great if you could come to the party!
- Please pass on my best thanks to everyone
- I would like to say for the problems with the arrangements
- Please take care!
- We are organising a special at the end of the year. You must come!
- I look for hearing from you
- I can't come to the party next time
- Let's hope we have better time next time

Glossary

1 Telephoning

Dialogues 1

I'd like to speak to Max Reed, please

H. Max. Speak here

I wanted to run through some of the arrangements

Sorry to keep you waiting

Would you like to leave a message?

I'll get someone to call you when they get back

I understand that she is looking after Selva

Mercio Stam is on parental leave

I'm afraid she's not here at the moment

Have we covered everything?

Anyway, thanks for calling

Dialogues 2

This is Ann Forsell's voicemail

It's about the meeting next month

I can't make it

Can you talk?

I'm in a meeting

I was just trying to check the time for next week's meeting

Sorry, I can't hear you very well

I'll just go outside

If you are calling about an order, please press 1

Your language

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 A company visit

Dialogues 1

Could you tell me how to get to your office from here?

After about two kilometres, you'll see a garage on your right.

Park in one of the visitors' spaces

I'm calling from a service station

Take the first left after the service station

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Carry on for three kilometres
 I have an appointment with Hans Ekblom.
 Do you know the building?
 Mr Ekblom's office is the fifth on the right, along the corridor.
 Hello, John. Good to see you again.
 I'd like you to meet Lena Berman.
 Did you have a good journey?

Dialogues 2

We're in the label business.
 We employ just over 3 000 people worldwide.
 It's growing all the time.
 Tell me more about your printing business.
 We're a private limited company.
 How long have you been on this site?
 When was the company set up?
 Let me show you around the office.
 An open plan area.
 I'll introduce you.

Dialogues 3

We're the second largest manufacturer in the country.
 As well as supplying the car industry, we sell glass for boats and aircraft.
 We run a so-called 'shopping search' website.
 You can compare prices from various shops.
 In my view it's far more secure
 in terms of sales by region.
 North America accounts for 15 per cent.
 The Chinese economy is booming.
 We cannot compete with them on price.
 We are well known in the market.
 Transport costs make it very unprofitable.

Your language

1. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 2. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 3. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 4. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 5. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 6. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 7. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 8. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 9. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 10. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.

1. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 2. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 3. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 4. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 5. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 6. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 7. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 8. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 9. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 10. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.

1. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 2. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 3. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 4. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 5. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 6. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 7. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 8. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 9. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 10. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.

1. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 2. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 3. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 4. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 5. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 6. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 7. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 8. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 9. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.
 10. Write a short letter to your friend about your company.

3 Job information

Dialogues 1

I'm responsible for new product development

I report directly to the CEO

What does that involve?

It sounds challenging

I hear you studied in Finland?

I did a degree in Engineering

I was very interested in the job

I usually cycle to work

Are the hours flexible?

I like eating in the company canteen

Excellent communication skills are essential

Absolutely

We should advertise with an on-line recruitment agency

Dialogues 2

The atmosphere is very relaxed

Everyone is on first name terms

Don't you find it very hot there?

I have no regrets about moving

$30 000 a year plus commission

The cost of living in Kazakhstan

The level of local salaries

Neither have I

The company really looks after its people

I have free use of the company gym

Promotion prospects are excellent

How has the takeover affected the company?

About 200 people are going to lose their jobs

Quite a few want to take early retirement

There are no compulsory redundancies

Your language

1. I am responsible for new product development

2. I report directly to the CEO

3. What does that involve?

4. It sounds challenging

5. I hear you studied in Finland?

6. I did a degree in Engineering

7. I was very interested in the job

8. I usually cycle to work

9. Are the hours flexible?

10. I like eating in the company canteen

11. Excellent communication skills are essential

12. Absolutely

13. We should advertise with an on-line recruitment agency

14. The atmosphere is very relaxed

15. Everyone is on first name terms

16. Don't you find it very hot there?

17. I have no regrets about moving

18. $30 000 a year plus commission

19. The cost of living in Kazakhstan

20. The level of local salaries

21. Neither have I

22. The company really looks after its people

23. I have free use of the company gym

24. Promotion prospects are excellent

25. How has the takeover affected the company?

26. About 200 people are going to lose their jobs

27. Quite a few want to take early retirement

28. There are no compulsory redundancies

5 Meetings

Dialogues 1

I'm trying to arrange a meeting for next week.
Can you make Tuesday?
Is Juan coming by the way?
It should be finished by 3:05.
Just in case the meeting overruns.
He didn't want to miss the meeting.
I'd like to come over to Paoan next week.
Any day next week except Friday would suit me.
Could you check with Alex and get back to me?
I'll order some sandwiches.
Otherwise I'll see you in the office at 12:30.

Dialogues 2

Could you take the minutes, please?
I'd like to leave now four until the next meeting.
Can we look at item one?
What are your thoughts on this?
I was asked to find out what the people in my department thought.
The majority looking into it in favour.
Of the fifty people I asked, only five did not like the idea.
Does everyone agree?
Is that really necessary?
I suppose you're right.
The other point I want to make is this.
We must really avoid this in the future.
That's not true.

Dialogues 3

I'm just phoning to let you know.
Bad news I'm afraid.
What reasons did he give?
short-sighted.
I thought I should let you know immediately.

Your language

1. I'm trying to arrange a meeting for next week.
Can you make Tuesday?
Is Juan coming by the way?
It should be finished by 3:05.
Just in case the meeting overruns.
He didn't want to miss the meeting.
I'd like to come over to Paoan next week.
Any day next week except Friday would suit me.
Could you check with Alex and get back to me?
I'll order some sandwiches.
Otherwise I'll see you in the office at 12:30.

2. Could you take the minutes, please?
I'd like to leave now four until the next meeting.
Can we look at item one?
What are your thoughts on this?
I was asked to find out what the people in my department thought.
The majority looking into it in favour.
Of the fifty people I asked, only five did not like the idea.
Does everyone agree?
Is that really necessary?
I suppose you're right.
The other point I want to make is this.
We must really avoid this in the future.
That's not true.

3. I'm just phoning to let you know.
Bad news I'm afraid.
What reasons did he give?
short-sighted.
I thought I should let you know immediately.

Anton has been having second thoughts
 He now thinks we've made a good case
 I'll call you tomorrow so we can discuss details
 Here are the main points
 Jerusalem to produce a questionnaire
 Subject to research costs for proposed building project
 No decision made
 I've attached the draft minutes of the meeting
 Check if I've left anything out

6 Entertaining and socializing

Dialogues 1

Would you like some coffee?
 Do you take milk and sugar?
 Can I have a soft drink?
 Let me translate the menu for you
 Borach – that's breakfast soup
 We're ready to order
 And for your main course?
 I'd like fried chicken
 Medium rare
 Can we have the bill, please?
 Excuse me, but could you tell me what this is for?
 Do you take credit cards?
 There's a cash machine just across the road

Dialogues 2

Where do you live, Xaver?
 Oh, I know Barcelona very well
 It's a great place for a holiday
 Did you see the football match last night?
 So you like football, do you?
 Where are you going for your summer holiday?
 My son and daughter can go mountain biking

Your language

1. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

2. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

3. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

4. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

5. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

6. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

7. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

8. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

9. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

10. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

1. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

2. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

3. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

4. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

5. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

6. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

7. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

8. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

9. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

10. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

11. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

12. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

13. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

14. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

15. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

16. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

17. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

18. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

19. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

20. Write a short letter to a friend in your own language, telling them about your trip to Barcelona. Use the notes below to help you. Write about 100 words.

Do you have any children?

I don't know what to wear.

I'm sure they'd appreciate some flowers...

I'm sorry to hear that.

I can't really go into it now.

I understand.

7 Travel

Dialogues 1

Would you like an aisle or a window seat?

A seat in the exit row

I'd like to book a hire car

How would you like to pay?

A single to Munich, please

Do I need to reserve a seat?

I'd like to book a twin room

I won't be arriving until 11:00 p.m.

I have a reservation in the name of Perry

Could you fill in this form, please?

We have a non-smoking room with a balcony on the 10th floor

Dialogues 2

I just have this bag and a laptop

The bag will have to go in the hold.

I'm not going to get to the meeting on time

I've just missed my connection

I'll let you know if I don't manage to catch the flight

There will be a criminal waiting at the gate.

I'll keep my fingers crossed

I asked for a non-smoking room

The bed hasn't been made

We need some identification

I don't have enough cash...

We do accept credit cards

Your language

1. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

2. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

3. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

4. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

5. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

6. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

7. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

8. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

9. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

10. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

11. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

12. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

13. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

14. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

15. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

16. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

17. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

18. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

19. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

20. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

21. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

22. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

23. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

24. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

25. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

26. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

27. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

28. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

29. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

30. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

31. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

32. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

33. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

34. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

35. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

36. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

37. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

38. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

39. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

40. Write a short story about your trip to the city.

8 Emailing

Messages 1

Dear Mr. Harano

If you have any queries, please call me

Yours sincerely

Dear Catherine

I am writing to inform you

Best regards

Hi Jeanne

Hope you're feeling better

I have to cover for her

Speak to you later

Let me know when you're next going to be in Salzburg

I look forward to hearing from you

Regards

Messages 2

Many thanks for helping

A public holiday

Anyway let's hope we have better luck in

Yokohama

Take care

I am writing to thank you

I would like to apologise

I clashed with the World Cup finals!

We would like you to join us for lunch

Let me know if you can attend

I'd love to come

Please send me details of the event

Many thanks for your kind invitation

Unfortunately, I'll be abroad

I hope the event goes well for you

Your language

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

~~~~~

Messages 3

They are having problems arranging the
meeting

Do you have any suggestions?

Good news!

It would be good to get together sometime next week

I'll set up a meeting

This is to let you know that Will Pack is leaving the company

I'm sure that you will want to join us in wishing

Wilfred good luck in his new job

I am sorry to inform you that I will be off work for two weeks

I was sorry to hear about Steven

Please pass on my best wishes

Your language

1. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

2. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

3. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

4. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

5. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

6. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

7. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

8. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

9. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

10. Write the messages in your own words. Use the words in the box to help you.

Answers

1 Telephoning

- 1 a leave b hear c hold d keep e call f want; press
g get h say i hang; try
- 2 Possible answers
a She's on maternity leave at the moment.
b I'm afraid I'm in a meeting. Can I call you back?
c Hello Peter, it's Fiona. Please call me back as soon as you can.
d Please, can you spell your name?
e I'm sorry I didn't catch the number. Did you say fifteen or fifty?
- 3 a on b on c about d on e in f on g in h through
- 4 1 d 2 h 3 b 4 g 5 i 6 e 7 a 8 c 9 f
- 5 a I'll tell him you called.
b If I find the information, I'll let you know immediately.
c If Peter doesn't come back from sick leave soon, we'll need to find a replacement.
d If you push that button, you'll disconnect the caller.
e What will you do if you don't find Sergei's number?
f If I don't find his number, I'll call directory enquiries.
- 6 a handset b toll-free c This is d get e hang f turn off g area
- 7 h, a, b, f, k, g, c, e, d, o, i
- 8 1 e 2 g 3 h 4 a 5 d 6 b 7 f 8 c

2 A company visit

1 a on b in c by d in e in f by g in h as i in

2 a registration b site c lift d corridor e profit f demand
g partnership h reputation

3 1 e 2 a 3 b 4 h 5 c 6 g 7 d 8 f

4 Possible answers:

- a At the roundabout take the second exit. Go through the town centre and then take the second turning on the left. The factory is at the end of the road.
- b Take the lift to the third floor. Turn right and go along the corridor. It's the fourth office on the right.
- c I've left my car in the space 'Reserved for Motors'. Is that all right?
- d I've stopped just before a bridge, opposite a garage. I can see a signpost. It says that Fabulosa is eight kilometres away.

5 Possible questions:

- a How many people do you employ?
How many people work for the company?
- b Are you a partnership?
- c How long have you been on this site?
How long have you been here?
- d Do you like working here?
Do you like the working atmosphere?
- e Where is your biggest market?
- f Who are your biggest/main competitors?
- g Can you tell me how to get to the factory?

6 Possible responses:

- a I've left my car in a reserved space.
- b Could you tell me how to get to the main office?
- c I'd like to introduce you to our Marketing Manager.
- d Did you have a good journey?
- e When was the company set up?
- f We are among the largest manufacturers in the region.
- g We have an excellent reputation in the market.

3 Job information

2 a redundant b development c insurance d retire e stressful f owners
g leadership h promotion i challenging j responsibilities

3 1 a 2 a 3 i 4 b 5 f 6 g 7 d 8 j 9 c 10 h

4 a for b to c of d for e about f of g of

6 1 h 2 f 3 a 4 b 5 e 6 c 7 g 8 d

7 a Neither did I b So did I c Neither am I d So do I e Neither do I f Neither will I g So will I h So am I

4 Presentations

- 1 a by b up c with d between e by f in g down
- 2 Possible answers
a Could you bear with me for a moment?
b Are there any questions so far?
c At this point on the graph you can see ...
This shows ...
d It's like to finish by thanking you all for coming
- 3 1 g 2 e 3 b 4 e 5 c 6 f 7 h 8 i 9 d
- 4 Up: a, b, d, g, h, i
Down: c, f, j
The same: e, k, l
- 5 a question b bread c point d picture e rate f fall/decline g point/level h period
- 6 a say b catch c repeat d bear e Take f gives g show h tell i account
- 7 1 b 2 c 3 a

5 Meetings

- 1 a make b cause c miss d happen e abandon f leave g report
h give i cover
- 2 a majority
b item
c necessary
d until e through f except g sat
- 3 a take b tell c make d set e made f having g rejected
- 4 a for b as c on d till e to f on, on g in h in i at/through j out
- 5 Possible answers
a I'd like to leave the next item until the next meeting.
b Does everyone agree that the date of the next meeting should be changed?
c Are you going to attend the next meeting?
d I'm just phoning to tell you what happened in the meeting.
e I've attached a copy of the agenda.
f Just one more point.
g What does everyone think about the idea?
- 6 1 f 2 c 3 e 4 a 5 h 6 b 7 i 8 d 9 g

- 7 a weight causes
b I'll order
c missed
d blame
e Does everyone agree?
f I'm calling
g has read/read
h to find out
i attached/have attached
j have had/have been having/had?/m having

6 Entertaining and socialising

- 1 Possible answers
a Could you translate the menu for me, please?
b Can I have the roast duck, please?
c I'll have the steak, please.
d Can I have the bill, please?
e Excuse me, what's this for?
f Where do you live?
g I live in Madrid. It's a small village in the south of Spain.
h I'm planning to go to Bali for a week with my family.
i I'm very sorry to hear that. We'll miss him/her.
- 2 a for b with c to d by e for f on g into h about
- 3 1 Can I have the chicken and vegetable soup, please?
2 Do you accept all credit cards?
3 Do you know if there is a cash machine nearby?
4 Do you take sugar in your coffee?
5 Would anyone like to see the dessert menu?
6 Did you watch the basketball game yesterday?
7 What clothes should I wear to the reception?
8 What has happened to David? Is he OK?
- 4 1 g 2 d 3 e 4 e 5 f 6 c 7 h 8 a
- 5 1 f 2 j 3 g 4 d 5 e 6 i 7 a 8 c 9 h 10 b
- 6 playing golf, tennis, badminton, volleyball, basketball, ping pong go-walking, climbing, cycling, snorkelling, diving, hiking, sailing
- 7 a nephew b aunt c cousin d uncle e niece
- 8 d, b, e, g, b, c, f a, i, j, k

7 Travel

1

European capital city Stockholm

2

Possible answers

- a I'd like a window seat, please, in the next row if possible
- b I'd like to reserve a double room for two nights, please
- c Good afternoon. I have a reservation in the name of (Badger)
- d I'm just phoning to say my flight has been delayed
- e Excuse me, I have a connection to Dublin at 5.30. Will I have time to catch the flight?

3 a is b is c under d on e for f in g with h on/with 4

1 d 2 e 3 f 4 b 5 g 6 c 7 h 8 a

5

Possible answers

- a Is the seat reservation included in the price?
- b I'll be there about 11 p.m., perhaps later
- c I'd prefer to pay in cash
- d There will be a car waiting for you outside the terminal
- e I'll call you if I miss the flight

6

- a My luggage was put in the hold
- b The room hasn't been cleaned today
- c The form has already been filled in
- d The train was booked last night
- e My flight was cancelled
- f I was given a first class ticket

7

1 e 2 e 3 h 4 b 5 d 6 c 7 f 8 g

8 Emailing

1 a m b to c at d on e for f with g for h all i on j in

2 The apart fastest phrases

a 1 b 1 c 2 d 1 e 2 f 1 g 1

3 1 c 2 f 3 h 4 a 5 d 6 b 7 e 8 g

4 a write b call c hope d must e thank f join g get h miss i pass j know

5 1 a 2 h 3 d 4 e 5 a 6 b 7 i 8 f 9 g

6 Possible answers:

a We'll correct you soon.

b Thanks for organising the conference.

c Just to let you know that we've changed the date of the meeting.

d Please let us know if you can make it.

e We hope you can join us for dinner.

f I'll call you at the end of the week.

g Good luck!

h We're having a party/a get-together next week.

7 a great b regards c apologise d take e event f forward

g unfortunately h luck

Key word: grateful